This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. A Grammar of Classical Latin. For use in Schools and Colleges. By ARTHUR SLOMAN, M.A., formerly Master of the King's Scholars in Westminster School, late Head Master of Birkenhead School. Large crown 8vo., pp. xvi + 480. Price 6s.

EXTRACT FROM PREFACE.—"By 'Classical Latin' is here meant that literary dialect of which Cicero and Cæsar are the recognised exponents in prose, Virgil, Ovid, and Horace in poetry. With regard to Accidence, the scope of this book is extended to some other authors, commonly read in schools, who approximate more or less closely to the severe standards adopted by the literary purists above mentioned."

OF

The University of Tasmania

FOR THE YEARS 1907 AND 1908.

THE TASMANIAN UNIVERSITY ACT.

53 VICT. No. 41.

AN ACT to Establish a University in Tasmania.

[Assented to 5th December, 1889.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is deemed expedient, for the promotion of useful knowledge, to hold forth to all classes of Her Majesty's subjects resident in Tasmania, without any distinction whatsoever, encouragement for pursuing a regular and liberal course of Education by the establishment of a University:

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

University to consist of Council and Senate.

1. A University, consisting of a Council and Senate, shall be established at Hobart, and, when duly constituted and appointed according to the provisions of this Act, shall be a body politic and corporate by the name of "The University of Tasmania," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall have a Common Seal, and be capable by that name to sue and be sued in all Courts, and to take, purchase, and hold land and personal estate, and to grant, sell, alienate, assign, and demise the same for any estate.

term, or interest, and also to do all other matters and things incidental or appertaining to a body politic and corporate: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the University to sell, mortgage, or dispose of any real estate without the consent in writing of the Governor in Council previously obtained: Provided, that until the Senate of the University shall have been constituted as herein enacted, the University shall consist of a Council only.

2. [Repealed by 54 Vict. No. 25, s. 3.]

How Members of the Council retire.

3. (1.) Three of the Members of the Council elected by the Senate, and Four of the Members elected by the Houses of Parliament, shall retire from office every year.

(2.) The order in which the Members of the Council shall retire from office shall be determined, in regard to first Members of the Council, by lot amongst themselves, and thereafter the Three Members elected by the Senate and the Four Members elected by the Houses of Parliament who have been the longest time in office shall retire every year.

(3.) Every retiring Member of the Council shall be eligible for re-election.

4. [Repealed by 54 Vict. No. 25, s. 4.]

Constitution of Senate.

5. The Senate shall consist of all male Graduates of the University of the Degree of Master or Doctor, and of all other male Graduates of the University of Three years' standing; of all male Graduates of any other University of Three years' standing admitted to Degrees in the University of Tasmania; of the Members of the Council; and of such Associates of Arts of Tasmania, and Associates of Institutions duly authorised to grant Degrees and Certificates, as shall be admitted to membership of the Senate under Regulations made in that behalf by the Council of the University and approved by the Governor in Council: Provided, that a Graduate of another University admitted to a Degree in the University of Tasmania shall reckon his standing from the date of his graduation in such other University.

Senate when constituted.

6. When and so soon as the number of enrolled Members of the Senate as hereinbefore provided and the Members of the Council together shall amount to Fifty, the Council shall make a Report thereof to the Governor, and such Report shall be published in the Hobart Gazette, and the Senate shall thereupon be deemed to be constituted; and until the Senate is so constituted the Council shall have and exercise all the rights and powers of the University.

Common Seal.

7. The Common Seal of the University shall be kept in such custody as the Council shall approve, and the same shall not be used except upon the order of the Council: Provided, that the said University may exercise any of its functions without affixing its Common Seal to the document by which any such function may be exercised, and provided further, that the Common Seal of the Council of Education may be used as the Common Seal of the University until another Seal is provided.

The Governor to be Visitor.

8. The Governor for the time being shall be Visitor of the said University, with authority to do all those things which pertain to the office of Visitor.

Council may confer Degrees.

9. The Council shall have power, after examination, to confer on persons of either sex the several Degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Doctor of Science, Bachelor of Laws, Doctor of Laws, Bachelor of Medicine, Doctor of Medicine, Bachelor of Music, and Doctor of Music; and such Degrees and Certificates in the nature of Degrees as it shall think fit in all branches of knowledge, except Theology or Divinity.

Ad eundem Degrees provided for.

10. The Council may at their discretion confer without examination any such Degree upon any person who shall have obtained a corresponding or equivalent Degree at any other University or Institution duly authorised to grant Degrees and Certificates.

Power to appoint Professors and Lecturers.

11. The Council shall have power, so soon as the University shall have acquired a sufficient endowment or income for any such purpose, to appoint such Professors and Lecturers as the Council may think fit, and to establish Scholarships, Exhibitions, Prizes, and a Library.

Technical Colleges, &c., may be affiliated.

12. The Council may make any Statutes for the affiliation to or connection with the University of any College or School which now is or hereafter may be established for the purposes of Technical Instruction in Agriculture, Arts, and Mechanics, and in such Statutes to provide for the control and management of any such College or School: Provided always, that no such College or School for Technical Instruction in Agriculture, Arts, and Mechanics shall be affiliated to or connected with the University unless and until the Governor in Council shall have first allowed and approved of such affiliation or connection.

Council to manage affairs of University.

13. The Council shall have the management and control of the affairs and property of the University; and in all cases unprovided for by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Council to act in such manner as shall appear to them best fitted to promote the interests of the University: Provided, that the acts of the Council shall be deemed valid although there may be vacancies in that body

Powers of Council of Education transferred to University

14. The University shall, in addition to the powers conferred by this Act, have and exercise through its Council all the powers which the Council of Education now has or exercises; and all property vested in the Council of Education is hereby transferred to and vested in the University as fully and for the same intents and purposes as the same may be vested in the said last-mentioned Council at the time this Act takes effect, and thenceforth the Council of Education shall merge in the Council of the University.

Power to make Statutes and Regulations.

15. The Council may make Statutes or Regulations touching any of the following matters:—

I. The creation of Offices in the said University, and the appointment and removal of Officers:
II. The times and places for holding Examinations, and the number and character of such Examinations:
III. The granting of Degrees and Honours:
IV. The Fees to be paid for any Examination or Degree:
V. The affiliation to or connection with the University of any College or Educational Establishment to which the governing body of such College or Establishment may consent:

vi. The licensing and supervision of boarding-houses intended for the reception of students, and the revocation of such licenses:

vii. The Lectures or Classes of the Professors and Lecturers (when appointed), and the Fees to be charged:

viii. The granting of Scholarships, Exhibitions, or Prizes:

ix. The discipline of the University:

x. The Meetings of the Council and of the Senate, the mode of voting at Meetings, and the Qualification of those who claim to vote:

xi. In general, touching all matters that may affect the University.

No religious test to be applied, &c.

16. No religious test shall be administered to any person in order to entitle him or her to be admitted as a student of the said University, or to hold office therein, or to graduate thereat, or to hold any advantage or privilege thereof.

Power to rescind or alter Rules.

17. The Council may from time to time alter or rescind any of such Statutes or Regulations.

Statutes and Regulations to be approved by Senate.

18. So soon as the Senate shall have been constituted, no new Statute or Regulation, or alteration or repeal of any existing Statute or Regulation, shall be of any force until approved by the Senate.

And in writing, &c.

19. All such Statutes and Regulations as aforesaid shall be reduced to writing, and the Common Seal of the University having been affixed thereto, shall be submitted to the Governor in Council to be allowed and countersigned by him, and if so allowed and countersigned shall be valid for all purposes.

Repeal of part of 22 Vict. No. 21.

20. So much of "The Tasmanian Council of Education and Scholarship Act" as relates to the Tasmanian Scholarships is hereby repealed from the Thirty-first day of December, in the year One thousand eight hundred and *ninety; but such repeal shall not apply to any Tasmanian Scholarship held under the provisions of the said Act at the date on which such repeal takes effect; and every such Scholarship

56 VICT. No. 26.

AN ACT to vest in the University of Tasmania the Property known as "The High School of Hobart."

[Assented to 21st December, 1892.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS by a Deed of Association dated the Twenty-third day of February, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, a Company or Association was formed at Hobart Town for the purpose of establishing and carrying on at Hobart Town aforesaid an Institution having for its immediate object the instruction of youth in the higher branches of learning as taught in superior English, Classical, and Mathematical Schools; but having for its ultimate object the extension of its organization and its aims concurrently with the growing wants of the community of Van Diemen's Land, and more particularly to obtain for it the privileges of a chartered Corporation to confer on Australian youth the inestimable advantages of a European University:

And whereas by Letters Patent dated the Twenty-eighth day of April, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, the piece of land situate in the Queen's Domain, Hobart, and described in the Schedule hereto, was granted by Her Majesty the Queen to Thomas Daniel Chapman, Henry Hopkins, Robert Officer, Alexander M'Naughtan, William Robertson, and William Rout, their heirs and assigns for ever:

And whereas by Deed Poll dated the Eighteenth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, under the hands and seals of the said grantees, it was declared that the grantees should stand seised of the said piece of land upon trust for the said Company or Institution called "The High School of Hobart Town," and to be for ever used and appropriated exclusively for the purposes of such Institution: Provided that if the said Company or Institution should by effluxion of time or from any cause whatever be dissolved or cease to exist then the grantees should stand seised of the said land upon trust to be for ever used and appropriated exclusively for the purposes for which the said Company or Institution had been formed and established:

And whereas the said Company or Association shortly afterwards expended large sums of money in erecting buildings on the said land and in establishing such school; and such school was for many years carried on under the name of "The High School of Hobart," but has been now for some time closed:

And whereas the said Company or Association has long since dissolved by effluxion of time, and the grantees of the said land have been some time dead:

And whereas, in order to give full effect to the purposes for which the said land was granted by Her Majesty, and particularly for the promotion and encouragement of sound learning and education in Tasmania, it is deemed expedient that the said land and the buildings thereon should be forthwith vested in the University of Tasmania, and that the Council of the University should be empowered to apply out of the funds of the University a sum of money in the repair and improvement of the buildings on the said land:

Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Land described in Schedule vested in University of Tasmania.

1. The piece or parcel of land described in the Schedule hereto is hereby vested in the University of Tasmania, to be held and used for the purposes of the said University: Provided, that the said land or any part thereof shall not at any time be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise alienated; and in the event of the said land and premises not being used for University purposes the same shall revert to the Crown for educational purposes.

Power to expend money on repairs, etc.

2. It shall be lawful for the Council of the University to apply out of the funds of the University a sum not exceeding Three hundred Pounds in the repair and improvement of the buildings on the said piece of land.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

No. 244.

Treasury, Hobart, 18th July, 1901.

In accordance with the provisions of "The Tasmanian University Amendment Act, 1890," 54 Vict. No. 25, the Administrator of the Government in Council has been pleased to rescind the Regulations made on the 10th day of August, 1891, under authority of "The Tasmanian University Act, 1891," 53 Vict. No. 41, and published in the Hobart Gazette of the 18th August, 1891, and to make the following Regulations in lieu thereof:—

REGULATIONS.

1. Elections of Members of the Council of the University of Tasmania, whether annual or extraordinary, by Members of the Parliament of Tasmania, shall be in the following manner.

2. The President of the Legislative Council shall, on the First day of September in every year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and in the event of an extraordinary vacancy, as soon as practicable after such vacancy happens, issue a circular to every Member of Parliament notifying that he will receive nominations of candidates on or before a day named therein, not being less than 14 days from the date of such circular.

3. Every nomination shall be in writing in the form in the Schedule or to the like effect, and shall be signed by at least two Members of Parliament.

4. Any person nominated as a candidate may, by letter, request the President to cancel his nomination, and the receipt of such letter shall be held to cancel such nomination.

5. The President shall fix a day for election, within 28 days and not less than 14 days from the latest day for receiving nominations.

6. If more than the required number of persons be nominated, votes shall be given by voting papers only.

7. At every such election every Member of Parliament who votes thereat shall expunge from his voting paper the name or names of the candidate or candidates for whom he does not intend to vote, but so that he leaves thereupon the names of as many candidates as there are Members of the Council to be elected: and every voting paper containing either more or less names not struck out than the number of Members then to be elected shall be invalid.

9. The President shall immediately after the day of nomination cause to be forwarded to every Member of Parliament, or, in the event of an extraordinary vacancy, to every Member of the House of Assembly or of the Legislative Council, as the case may require, a printed voting paper in the above form, together with a copy of these Regulations.

10. If no more than the required number of persons be nominated, the President shall thereupon declare such persons elected.

11. If more than the required number of persons shall have been nominated, the President, assisted by the Clerk of the Legislative Council and such Members of Parliament as may choose to be present, shall proceed, at the time and place appointed, to examine the voting papers and to count the votes, and shall then declare the result of the election.

12. If the President be of opinion that any voting paper is substantially defective, such voting paper shall not be used in the election.

13. No voting paper shall be used at any election unless it be received by the President not later than the hour fixed for the election, which shall be stated on the voting paper.

14. If any Member transmit to the President two or more voting papers, the voting paper of most recent date shall be used at the election, and shall be held to cancel all voting papers bearing an earlier date and signed by such Member.

15. The President shall, except at elections by Members of the House of Assembly to fill up extraordinary vacancies, have a deliberative vote; and in the event of the number of votes at any election being found to be equal for any two or more candidates, the President shall, by his casting vote, decide which of the said candidates shall be elected.

16. The President shall, subject to the provisions herein contained, determine conclusively all questions or details concerning the election.

17. The election of every Member of the said Council under these Regulations, or any others amending or superseding the same, shall be notified by the President of the Legislative Council, or any one acting in his behalf, in the Hobart Gazette.

18. In any election where the President of the Legislative Council (in these Regulations referred to as "the President") is a candidate, or is absent, or the office of President is vacant, the Speaker of the House of Assembly, or, if he also is a candidate or is absent, or the office of Speaker is vacant, some Member of Parliament appointed by the Governor, shall exercise the powers hereby given to the President.

19. The Members retiring annually shall vacate their seats on the Thirty-first day of December in every year; and the Members elected to supply such vacancies shall enter into office on the First day of January in the year following their election.

CHAPTER XII.—OF THE AFFILIATION OF THE ZEEHAN SCHOOL OF MINES AND METALLURGY.

26.9.02 Whereas section 12 of "The Tasmanian University Act" empowers the Council to make Statutes for the affiliation to the University of any College or School which is established for the purposes of Technical Instruction in Agriculture, Arts, and Mechanics, and section 15 of the said Act empowers the Council to make Statutes touching the affiliation to the University of any College or Educational Establishment to which the Governing Body of such College or Establishment may consent; and whereas the Governing Body of the Zeehan School of Mines and Metallurgy at Zeehan in the State of Tasmania has consented to the affiliation of the said School to the University of Tasmania, and has expressed its approval of the terms of this Statute; it is hereby provided as follows:—

13.4.05 1. The Zeehan School of Mines and Metallurgy is affiliated to the University of Tasmania, under the following conditions:—

(a) Not less than one-third of the Members of the Governing Body of the School shall be recommended by the University Council in every year for appointment by the Governor in Council.

(b) The Examiners in examinations for the Diplomas of the School in Metal Mining and in Metallurgical Chemistry and Assaying shall be appointed by the University Council, subject to the approval, as regards examinations for the first-named Diploma, of the Minister of Mines. The form of the Diplomas shall be approved by the Council, and the said Diplomas shall indicate that the School is affiliated to the University, and that the examinations for which they are issued are held under the supervision of the University.

(c) Students of the School who have obtained either of the aforesaid Diplomas, and have passed an entrance examination as hereinafter provided, and have matriculated in the University, shall be excused, in qualifying for any Degree, from examination in any subjects in which they have passed an examination of similar standard in obtaining such Diploma, and from compulsory attendance at any practical classes of the University in subjects in which they have attended similar practical classes at the School in courses of study for such Diploma.

(d) All appointments of members of the teaching staff of the School in any subject which is included in the operation of the preceding sub-section shall be subject to the approval

REGULATIONS.

OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS.

25.10.01 1. The Examiners for the Public Examinations shall be annually appointed by the Council, at its ordinary meeting in the month of August, or as soon thereafter as practicable, on the nomination of the Board of Studies.

25.4.07 2. The Professors, together with such of the Examiners as the Board of Studies may annually appoint for the purpose, shall constitute a Board of Public Examinations, which shall have charge of the Public Examinations including Special Senior Public Examinations. Except in case of an extraordinary vacancy the appointed members shall remain on the Board until the appointment of their successors.

9.12.04 3. The Board shall annually appoint a Chairman, who shall have general control of the examinations under its charge.

25.10.01 4. The Board shall determine the form of examination returns to be sent in by the various Examiners, and shall furnish to the Examiners such information and instructions as may be necessary for the due conduct of the examinations under its charge, and for the proper carrying into effect of the Regulations relating thereto.

25.10.01 5. Every examination-paper set by an Examiner who is not a member of the Professorial staff shall, before being printed, be subject to the approval of the Chairman, or of such other member of the Board as he may select for the purpose.

25.10.01 6. Each Examiner shall send in his examination returns, together with such report as may be required, to the Registrar, who shall submit them to the Board, after tabulating the returns.

25.10.01 7. The class lists prescribed by the Regulations shall be prepared from the Examiners' returns by the Registrar, with the assistance or collaboration of such persons, if any, as the Council may see fit to appoint.

9.12.04 8. When the class lists have been prepared as aforesaid, the Board shall meet, and shall consider them, together with the Examiners' returns and reports; and the Board may furnish any information contained in or concerning such class lists to any Examiner, and any Examiner may revise his returns; and the Board shall make such alterations in the class lists as may thereby be rendered necessary; and the said class lists, when passed by the Board, shall forthwith be published.

9.12.04 9. The Board shall prepare reports on the examinations under its charge, and shall submit the same, together with the reports of the several Examiners, to the Vice-Chancellor, who may order the publication thereof; and such reports shall thereupon be published, and shall be laid before the Council at its next meeting.

10. The Board may, at any time, make a report to the Council on any matter connected with the examinations under its charge. 25.10.01

11. The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of all its proceedings. 25.10.01

12. The Board shall make, and may from time to time revise, rules for the conduct of the examinations under its charge; and also for its own guidance, and for that of Examiners, in any matters which recur from year to year; and such rules shall be made or revised only after due notice, and by either (a) an absolute majority of the Board, or (b) the unanimous vote of a meeting consisting of not less than one-third of the Board. 9.12.04

OF THE JUNIOR PUBLIC EXAMINATION.

1. An examination, to be called the Junior Public Examination, shall be held annually, and shall commence on the first Monday in December; provided that the Board of Studies may, in case of urgent necessity, alter the date. 5.9.03

2. The examination shall be held in Hobart, in Launceston, and at such other centres as the Council may from year to year appoint. Provided that the examination shall not be held at any such other centre if it shall appear that the total number of intending candidates for the examinations under the charge of the Board of Public Examinations at that centre is less than five. Provided also that the examination in Shorthand shall not be held at any such other centre unless the Board of Studies shall be satisfied that such examination can be efficiently conducted there. 25.9.03

3. The examination shall be open to all persons who shall have attained the age of 12 years on the first day of December of the year in which the examination is held; but candidates who have attained the age of 15 years on the aforesaid day shall be distinguished in the General Class List from those under that age. 28.11.02

The subject of Music of Grade III., Theoretical and Practical, of the Examination of the Melbourne University Conservatorium Board, shall count, for all purposes of these Regulations and of the Regulations of the University Exhibitions, as a subject in Group V. of the Junior Public Examination next following, and shall be deemed to be passed at the same time as that examination.

Entry for the Examination in Music must be made, and the fee must be paid, as required by the Regulations of the Melbourne University Conservatorium Board.

25.10.01 5. No candidate may present himself for examination in more than three subjects in Group II., or in more than nine subjects altogether.

25.9.03 6. Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, a candidate may present himself for examination in any subject or in any combination of subjects; but in order to pass the examination a candidate must satisfy the Examiners in five subjects, viz.:—

(1) English Grammar.
(2) One subject of Group II.
(3) Arithmetic.
(4) } Any two other subjects of the examination,
(5) } provided that they be not both of Group V.

25.10.01 7. The names of those who pass the examination shall be placed in three classes, of which the first shall be arranged in order of merit, and the second and third alphabetically.

(1) Candidates who pass the examination, and who obtain credit in four or more subjects, shall be placed in the First Class.
(2) Other candidates who pass the examination, and who obtain credit in two or more subjects, shall be placed in the Second Class.
(3) All other candidates who pass the examination shall be placed in the Third Class.

25.4.07 8. The list of names of those who pass the examination, arranged as aforesaid, shall be called the General Class List. This list shall also show in what subjects each candidate has passed or obtained credit, and the place of education of each candidate, if supplied, and the age of each candidate admitted as under 15 years of age.

Digitized by Google

9. There shall also be a list, to be called the Separate Subjects List, which shall contain, in alphabetical order, the names of all candidates who have passed or obtained credit in any subject or subjects without passing the examination, and shall show in what subjects such candidates have passed or obtained credit; also the place of education of each candidate, if supplied. 25.10.01

10. Neither the General Class List nor the Separate Subjects List shall show in any manner in what subjects any candidate has failed to pass. 25.10.01

11. On the recommendation of the Board of Studies, the Council shall cause to be published Details of the several subjects of examination, and may from time to time revise the same; but such revision shall not affect the character of any examination which shall be held within two years of the publication thereof, unless special circumstances render necessary a shorter notice. 25.10.01

The Board of Studies shall also cause to be published, not later than the thirtieth day of November in each year, a list of text-books prescribed for the examination to be held in the second year thereafter: provided that such list may, in case of necessity, be subsequently modified.

12. Every candidate who has passed the examination, or who has passed in any subject or subjects of the examination, shall be entitled to receive a certificate, signed by the Registrar, specifying the subjects in which he has passed or obtained credit. The fee for any such certificate shall be two shillings and sixpence. 25.10.01

13. Candidates desiring to present themselves at the examination must give notice to the Registrar, not later than the fifteenth day of October, on a printed form provided for the purpose,* filling in all the particulars specified therein, and sending at the same time the prescribed fee; and those who claim to be admitted as under 15 years of age must also send a certificate of birth, unless such certificate is not obtainable, in which case some other sufficient evidence of age may be accepted. 13.4.05

Provided that any candidate who makes default in giving the aforesaid notice may, nevertheless, be admitted to examination if he gives such notice not later than the twenty-second day of October, and pays an additional fee of 1s. for each day during which he has made default.

Provided also that, where no inconvenience would arise, the Chairman of the Board of Public Examinations shall have power to extend the period for such admission in special cases.

* These forms are obtainable in Hobart and Launceston on personal application at Messrs. Walch & Sons' and Messrs. Birchall & Sons' respectively, and in the country from Head Teachers of State Schools.

after as practicable, on the nomination of the Board of Studies.

25.4.07 2. There shall be a Board of Degree Examinations, to have charge of the above-named examinations, of which the Professors and Lecturers of the University shall be ex officio members, and such of the other Examiners for any of the above-named examinations as may be resident in Hobart shall, except in case of an extraordinary vacancy, be members from the time of their appointment until the appointment of Examiners for the next corresponding examination.

9.12.04 3. At its first meeting in each year after the appointment of Examiners for the Ordinary Examinations the Board shall appoint a Chairman, who shall have general control of the examinations under its charge. After such appointment of Examiners in each year the Chairman of the Professorial Board shall act as Chairman until the Board shall appoint a Chairman.

9.12.04 4. Subject to the Regulations the Board shall have power to do whatever it may deem necessary for the due conduct of the examinations under its charge.

9.12.04 5. Each Examiner shall send in his signed examination return to the Registrar. If there be more than one Examiner in any subject, a joint return shall be sent in signed by all the Examiners in the subject.

9.12.04 6. The class-lists prescribed by the Regulations shall be prepared from the Examiners' returns by the Registrar, under the supervision of the Chairman.

9.12.04 7. In the case of the Ordinary Examinations, upon the receipt of each Examiner's return the Registrar shall place on the notice-board a provisional list containing the names of candidates whom the Examiner has adjudged to have passed, but not indicating any credits, or any names of candidates concerning whom the Examiner has reserved his final decision.

And when the class-lists have been prepared as prescribed in the preceding section, the Board shall meet and shall consider them, together with the Examiners' returns; and after any necessary communication with any absent Examiners the class-lists shall be finally revised by the Board, and shall forthwith be published, and shall be laid before the Council at its next meeting together with such report as the Board may think necessary.

9.12.04 8. In the case of the Supplementary and of the Honours Examinations, the Chairman shall not call the Board together unless he think it necessary, but may order the class-lists to be published as soon as they have been verified by him.

9.12.04 9. The Board may at any time make to the Council or to the Board of Studies such recommendation as it may think fit on any matter connected with the examinations under its charge.

9.12.04 10. The Board shall cause minutes to be kept of all its proceedings.

OF THE ORDINARY AND SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATIONS.

1. The Ordinary Examinations in the courses for Bachelors' Degrees shall be held annually during the Fourth Term, and the Supplementary Examinations about the beginning of the First Term. When not otherwise ordered they shall commence on the Thursday immediately following the 46th Wednesday in the year, and on the 9th Wednesday in the year, respectively; but the Board of Studies may, if it be necessary, alter the dates. The Board may also cause the Supplementary Examination in any subject to be postponed to the end of the First Term, if that time of year appears to be more convenient to the studies of the University. 13.4.05

The Board shall also appoint the places for holding the examinations.

2. The Board of Studies shall cause to be published, not later than the fifteenth day of April in each year, Details of the several subjects of examination, together with lists of books prescribed or recommended, for the Ordinary Examinations to be held in the following year: provided that such Details and lists may, in case of necessity, be subsequently modified. The Details and lists of books for any Ordinary Examination shall also apply to the succeeding Supplementary Examination. 9.12.04

3. No person may present himself at any Ordinary Examination in more than five subjects. 9.12.04

4. The Ordinary Examinations shall be open to all persons, whether matriculated or not, who shall have fulfilled the conditions prescribed in these Regulations and any special conditions relative to any particular subject prescribed in the Regulations of the various Bachelors' Degrees. 9.12.04

5. The Supplementary Examinations shall be open to the following candidates: — 23.3.06

(a) To candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, in the subjects of Latin I., English I., Mathematics I.

(b) To candidates for the Degree of Bachelor of Science, in the subject of Mathematics I.

(c) To any Matriculated Student or Graduate, for re-examination with the permission of the Board of Degree Examinations in any subject in which he has failed at the preceding Ordinary Examination; provided that he has passed at such Ordinary Examination in at least two subjects, or in at least one subject of the Third Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Science.

6. Candidates desiring to present themselves for examination must give notice to the Registrar, not later than the fifteenth day of September for an Ordinary Examination, the fifteenth day of January for a Supplementary Examination, and the fifteenth day of April for a postponed Supplementary Examination, on a printed form provided for the purpose, filling in all the particulars specified therein, and sending at the same 13.4.05 time the prescribed fee; and must, not later than one week before the commencement of the examination, furnish the Registrar with any certificates that may be required by the Regulations.

Provided that any candidate who makes default in giving the aforesaid notice or furnishing the aforesaid certificates may, nevertheless, be admitted to examination if he gives such notice not later than the twenty-second day of the month prescribed, and furnishes such certificates not later than the day before the examination, and pays an additional fee of 1s. for each day during which he has made default.

Provided also that, where no inconvenience would arise, the Chairman of the Board of Degree Examinations shall have power to extend the period for such admission in special cases.

31.8.05 7. The fee for the Ordinary Examinations shall be 10s. 6d. for each subject, and for a Supplementary Examination £1 1s. for each subject.

Provided that Teachers in the Education Department of Tasmania shall pay one-half of the above fees.

In no case will the fee be returned, but any fee paid by a candidate who is prevented from attending the examination by illness or other cause allowed by the Council shall stand to his credit for a future examination.

9.12.04 8. After every examination class-lists of each subject shall be prepared, containing the names of the candidates who have passed or obtained credit therein, the credit candidates being arranged in three classes in all subjects forming part of the courses for the Degrees of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science, and the names in each class being arranged alphabetically. Credit shall not be awarded at Supplementary Examinations. The names of non-matriculated students shall be distinguished from those of other candidates.

9.12.04 9. After every Ordinary Examination lists shall also be prepared of candidates who have thereat completed any examination in the course for any Bachelor's Degree, and such lists shall be revised after every Supplementary Examination.

9.12.04 10. Every candidate who passes in any subject or subjects of any examination shall be entitled to receive a certificate, signed by the Registrar, specifying the subjects in which he has passed or obtained credit. The fee for any such certificate shall be 2s. 6d.

9.12.04 11. The passing in any subject at an Ordinary or Supplementary Examination shall not form part of the qualification for any Degree unless the candidate at the time of so passing is either a Matriculated Student or a Graduate of the University.

Provided that if a candidate have not matriculated, though qualified to do so, and if he shall subsequently matriculate, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Board of Studies that his omission to matriculate at the proper time was the result of inadvertence, then he may, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to have matriculated before passing the examination in such subject.

Provided also that any non-matriculated student who has passed in any subject of these examinations prior to the 31st March, 1905, may, if he subsequently matriculate, count such subject as part of the qualification for any Degree. And for the purpose of qualifying for Matriculation any such student shall only be required to pass at the Senior Public Examination in those subjects prescribed in the Regulations of Matriculation whose subject-matter is, in the opinion of the Board of Studies, not included in the subject or subjects of these examinations passed by him prior to the 31st March, 1905.

12.* If the name of any subject occurs in the Regulations of two Degrees, and there be any difference in the definitions of such subject, or in the conditions prescribed in connection with it, either in the Regulations or in the Details of Subjects, then any person who has passed in such subject as prescribed for the one Degree may not reckon it as part of the qualification for the other Degree without the permission of the Faculty in whose department such subject lies. And the Faculty may grant such permission with or without conditions as to further examination or otherwise as it may think necessary, or may refuse such permission upon any conditions. 9.12.04

13. If a Matriculated Student, or a Graduate, of this University have passed at another University or other public Institution an examination in any subject or subjects equivalent to a subject prescribed in the Regulations of any Bachelor's Degree of this University, or to either the practical or the theoretical part of any subject which has such parts, in the opinion of the Faculty in whose department such subject lies, then he may be admitted to the status of having passed in such subject or such part of a subject. 28.9.06

Provided that this section shall not apply to any subject of the final examination for any Bachelor's Degree.

* Under the powers here given, the Faculty of Science has decided as follows :—

(1.) A candidate who is registered as having passed Mathematics I. of the Science Course under Details identical with those for Mathematics II. of the Arts Course of the same or any subsequent date, and also as having passed Mathematics I. of the Arts Course (whether previously or otherwise), shall be registered as having also passed Mathematics II. of the Arts Course.

(2.) A candidate who is registered as having passed Mathematics II. of the Science Course under Details identical with those for Mathematics III. of the Arts Course of the same or any subsequent date, and also as having passed Mathematics I. and II. of the Arts Course (whether previously or otherwise), shall be registered as having also passed Mathematics III. of the Arts Course.

The above provisions may first take effect at the Ordinary Examinations in 1905, previous to which the subjects of Mathematics I., II., and III. of the Science Course were respectively identical with the subject distinguished by the same numeral in the Arts Course.

he has already obtained a sufficient practical knowledge of the subject in some manner of the adequacy of which the Faculty is satisfied.

The examination need not be passed in the same year as that for which the attendance has been certified. But if a candidate has failed in the practical examination in any such subject he shall be required before re-examination to attend again for the prescribed time at the practical classes therein unless the Board of Degree Examinations excuse such attendance, or any portion thereof.

9.12.04 10. A candidate in any of the subjects set forth in the preceding section, who has satisfied the Examiner in either the practical or the theoretical part of the subject, but not in both, may be permitted by the Board of Degree Examinations to complete the examination in the subject by re-examination on a subsequent occasion in that part only in which he failed.

9.12.04 11. The requirement in section 1 relative to Plane Trigonometry shall not apply to candidates admitted to instruction or examination prior to the 31st December, 1905.

OF THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF MINING ENGINEERING.

Temporary Provisions

7.4.04 (a) The Regulations of the Degree of Bachelor of Mining Engineering are repealed as from the 31st day of March, 1905; provided that any candidate who at that date has passed the four examinations for the Degree, may complete the qualification as prescribed in section 12,* at any time previous to 31st December, 1908.

(b) The Council may, on the recommendation of the Board of Studies, grant to any person who has passed any examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Mining Engineering, such exemption from examination in any subject or subjects of the course for the Degree of Bachelor of Science as it may think fit.

* Candidates for the Degree shall at some time or times pass an aggregate period of twelve months in acquiring a practical knowledge of Mining Engineering under a competent Mining Manager or Mining Engineer in charge of works; provided that candidates who pass three vacations of three months each in this manner shall be deemed to have fulfilled this requirement. Candidates who have passed the four examinations, and spent such period in practical w rk as aforesaid to the satisfaction of the Faculty of Science, may be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor of Mining Engineering.

five miles from the University and from every other place where such lectures are given, or (b) his attendance has been on special grounds excused by the Faculty of Law.

The examination need not be passed in the same year as that for which the attendance has been certified. But if a candidate has failed in the examination in any such subject he shall be required before re-examination to attend again at the lectures therein, unless the Board of Degree Examinations excuse such attendance, or the candidate is otherwise exempted under the provisions of this section.

9.12.04 8. No student shall receive a certificate of attendance at lectures in any subject unless he has complied with the following conditions:—(a) has attended three-fourths of the lectures given in that subject; (b) has satisfied the Lecturer in the class examinations; and (c) has performed to the satisfaction of the Lecturer such exercises as may have been prescribed.

9.12.04 9. Candidates who passed the First Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws before the 31st December, 1896, shall not be subject to any of the sections of these Regulations, excepting sections 7, 8, and 9. For such candidates the subjects of the Third Examination shall be:—

The Law of Wrongs, Civil and Criminal.
The Law of Contracts.
International Law.

On passing in these subjects, either at one time or successively, the said candidates shall be qualified for admission to the Degree.

25.4.07 10.—(a) Section 1 shall not apply to candidates admitted to instruction or examination prior to the 31st December, 1905.

(b) Candidates who have passed the First Examination prior to the 31st December, 1904, and who have therefore not passed in General History of England as a subject of that examination, shall, unless Graduates of the University, pass at some time in one of the following subjects of the First Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, viz:—Latin I., English I., General History of England, Logic I., Mathematics I. And candidates may present themselves for this purpose at any Ordinary or Supplementary Examination.

OF THE HONOURS EXAMINATIONS.

20.2.03 1. The Board of Studies shall cause to be published, not later than the fifteenth day of April in each year, Details of the several subjects of examination, together with lists of text-books prescribed or recommended, for the Honours Examinations to be held in the next year but one thereafter; provided that such lists may, in case of necessity, be subsequently modified.

Digitized by Google

2. The Honours Examinations shall be held annually, at such times and at such places as the Board of Studies shall from time to time appoint, and when not otherwise ordered shall commence on the ninth Wednesday in the year. 20.2.03

3. The Honours Examinations shall be open to all Graduates of the University and to all Matriculated Students who are qualified for admission to a Degree in the University. 20.2.03

4. Candidates desiring to present themselves at any Honours Examination must give notice to the Registrar, not later than the second day of January, on a printed form provided for the purpose, filling in all the particulars specified therein, and sending at the same time the prescribed fee. 13.4.05

Provided that any candidate who makes default in giving the aforesaid notice may, nevertheless, be admitted to examination if he gives such notice not later than the ninth day of January, and pays an additional fee of 1s. for each day during which he has made default.

Provided also that, where no inconvenience would arise, the Chairman of the Board of Degree Examinations shall have power to extend the period for such admission in special cases.

5. The fee for an Honours Examination shall be £2 2s. for each School. In no case will the fee be returned, but any fee paid by a candidate who is prevented from attending the examination by illness or other cause allowed by the Council shall stand to his credit for a future examination. 20.2.03

6. Separate class-lists shall be prepared for each School of Honours. There shall be three classes of Honours, and a candidate's class shall be determined on the results of his examination in any School as a whole; but exceptional proficiency in particular subjects may be specially mentioned. The names in each class of each School shall be arranged alphabetically. In any case where a School includes alternative subjects, the class-list shall also indicate the subjects actually passed in by each candidate. 20.2.03

7. Every candidate who passes any Honours Examination shall be entitled to receive a certificate, signed by the Registrar, containing all the particulars indicated in the class-list relative to such candidate. The fee for any such certificate shall be 2s. 6d. 20.2.03

8. The Schools and subjects of the Honours Examination shall be as follows:— 7.4.04

OF TERMS AND LECTURES.

1. The academic year shall contain four terms, that is to say:— 13.4.05

(a) The First Term, commencing on the ninth Wednesday in the year and continuing for twelve weeks.

(b) The Second Term, commencing on the twenty-third Wednesday in the year, and continuing for ten weeks.

(c) The Third Term, commencing on the thirty-fifth Wednesday in the year, and continuing for ten weeks.

(d) The Fourth Term, commencing on the forty-sixth Wednesday in the year, and continuing for five weeks.

2. Lectures shall commence on the second Wednesday of the First Term, and on the first day of the Second and of the Third Terms, and shall cease on the last day of each of these three terms. 13.4.05

Lectures and other University classes shall not be held on any day from the Wednesday before Easter to the Tuesday after Easter inclusive, nor on the day appointed for the Commemoration, nor on the days appointed by law as bank holidays on account of the Birthdays of His Majesty and of the Prince of Wales.

With regard to other days appointed from time to time by the Governor to be bank holidays or half-holidays, the Vice-Chancellor may direct that lectures and other classes be not held on them, or during stated portions of them, if he so think fit.

3. The lectures, laboratories, and other classes of the University shall be open to all students, whether matriculated or not matriculated, who shall have entered their names with the Registrar, and paid the prescribed fees, provided that they satisfy the Professors and Lecturers as to their competency to profit by the teaching to be given, and subject to such other restrictions, if any, as are contained in the Regulations.* 13.4.05

4. All fees, for the year, shall be paid not later than the Friday next following the commencement of lectures in the First Term; and, for any term, not later than the Friday next following the commencement of lectures of that term. Notice of intention to attend classes shall be given not less than one week previous to the day prescribed for payment of fees. 24.5.01

5. Any student failing to give the notice or to pay the fee within the time prescribed, shall, notwithstanding such failure, be admitted on payment of an additional fee of one shilling for each day of default, provided that such additional payment shall not exceed ten shillings. 24.5.01

* NOTE.—For original research, carried on with the consent and under the direction of the Professor or Lecturer in charge, the Laboratories of the University will be open gratis, except as regards such payment for material and special attendance as may be considered necessary by the aforesaid officer.

For work in a laboratory, or in any class other than a lecture-class	1	1	0

Provided that Teachers in the Education Department of Tasmania may be admitted to any classes without payment of fees.

20.10.00 7. The Council of the University shall have power to determine from time to time the amount of fees to be paid for attendance at classes held under its authority elsewhere than at the University, and for attendance at University Extension Lectures, also to remit in special cases, if it sees fit, any fees payable or recoverable under sections 5 or 6 of these Regulations

21.2.02 ## OF THE UNIVERSITY EXHIBITIONS.

1. Five Exhibitions of the value of £20 each per annum shall be offered for competition at the Junior Public Examination in each year, and shall be tenable, for three years from the first day of January immediately following the examination, at such schools in Tasmania as may be chosen by the parents or guardians of the Exhibitioners, subject to the approval of the Council.

2. Those candidates only shall be qualified for an Exhibition who, being under fifteen years of age on the first day of December of the year in which the examination was held, have been placed in the First Class, and do not already hold an undivided Exhibition.

3. Candidates qualified as aforesaid for Exhibitions shall be eligible for the same in the order in which their names appear in the list of the First Class; and if any candidate declines or fails to take up an Exhibition it shall be offered to the next eligible candidate.

Provided that if two or more candidates are equally eligible for an Exhibition or Exhibitions, such Exhibition or Exhibitions shall be equally divided between them.

Digitized by Google

4. The acceptance of Exhibitions must be communicated to the Registrar, in the case of candidates first entitled thereto, within one week of the notification to their parents or guardians of the result of the competition; and, in the case of candidates subsequently entitled thereto, within such time as the Council shall appoint.

5. If at any time an Exhibition shall become vacant through any cause, the Council may, if it sees fit, offer it, for the remainder of its term of currency, to the next eligible candidate.

Provided that if the occurrence of any such vacancy affects the equitable distribution of Exhibitions between candidates possessing equal claims thereto, a redistribution for the remainder of the term of currency shall be made on the same principles as those which determine an original distribution.

6. The amount of each Exhibition shall be payable by equal quarterly instalments to the Exhibitioner's parent or guardian, or to such other person as the Council shall appoint, upon receipt by the Council of satisfactory proof of the Exhibitioner's good conduct and diligence during the previous three months.

7. If at the end of any quarterly period satisfactory proof as aforesaid is not received, the Council may, if it sees fit, declare the Exhibition vacant.

8. If an Exhibitioner matriculates, he may continue to hold his Exhibition for the remainder of its term of currency, subject to the conditions as to conduct, pursuit of studies, and attendance at lectures, under which University Scholarships are awarded and held.

9. No person shall be permitted to hold at the same time more than one of the Exhibitions to be awarded under these Regulations.

OF THE UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

To apply to all Scholarships to be awarded on the result of the examinations to be held in 1905 and subsequently.

1. Four Scholarships, viz., two First Scholarships of the value of £25 each per annum, and two Second Scholarships of the value of £15 each per annum, shall be offered for competition at the Senior Public Examination in each year, and shall be tenable for three years from the first day of January immediately following the examination. 10.8.05

One First and one Second Scholarship shall be awarded on the result of examination in certain subjects of Groups I. and II., and one First and one Second Scholarship on the result of examination in certain subjects of Groups III. and IV., as hereinafter set forth.

Digitized by Google

10.3.05 2. Those candidates only shall be qualified for a Scholarship who, being under nineteen years of age on the first day of December of the year in which the examination was held, have passed the examination, have shown creditable proficiency in one of the sets of subjects specified in the next section, and have passed at some Public Examination in the subjects prescribed as qualifying for Matriculation.

25.4.07 3. At the close of the Senior Public Examination in each year two lists of the candidates qualified for Scholarships shall be prepared, containing :—

(a) The names of qualified candidates arranged in order of merit according to the result of examination in English Language and Literature, English History, and not more than three of the following :—Latin, Greek, French, German.

(b) The names of qualified candidates arranged in order of merit according to the result of examination in not more than six of the subjects of Groups III. and IV., of which not more than four may be of Group III., and not more than two of Group IV. If a candidate is examined in more than the aforesaid number of subjects in either Group, those subjects in each Group shall be reckoned in which he obtains most marks.

Candidates shall be eligible for either First Scholarship in the order of the corresponding list; and if any candidate declines or fails to take up a First Scholarship it shall be offered to the next candidate on the list; and after the First Scholarships have been thus allotted the Second Scholarships shall be similarly dealt with.

10.3.05 4. If, in the preparation of the aforesaid lists, two or more candidates appear, in the opinion of the Board of Public Examinations, to have shown equal proficiency in the subjects of either such list, the Board shall, if possible, determine their order of merit by the proficiency shown in subjects of Group II. or of Group III. as the case may be. And if the Board is unable on these grounds to assign an order of merit, it shall use its discretion as to the best method of utilizing the results of the examination to determine the order.

Provided, that if the Board is unable in any way to discriminate between such candidates, they shall be bracketed as equal, and any emolument or emoluments to which they may become entitled shall be equally divided between them.

10.3.05 5. The acceptance of a Scholarship must be communicated to the Registrar within one week of its being offered to the candidate.

Scholarships shall not be awarded to successful candidates until they have matriculated, and declared their intention of attending lectures at the University, and proceeding to a Degree.

10.3.05 6. If it shall appear that a Scholar or a candidate entitled to a Scholarship would be precluded from attending regular courses of lectures by reason of his being resident more than five miles from the University, the Council may, if it sees fit, grant him an allowance not exceeding £25 per annum, either for board and lodging or for necessary travelling expenses, to be concurrent with the Scholarship so long as the need for such allowance continues.

Before granting a boarding allowance the Council must be satisfied with the arrangements proposed to be made for the board and lodging of the Scholar, and no change shall be made in such arrangements without the previous approval of the Council.

7. If at any time a Second Scholarship becomes vacant the Council may, if it sees fit, offer it for the remainder of its term of currency to the candidate next eligible. If a First Scholarship becomes vacant, it shall revert for the remainder of its term of currency to the holder of the corresponding Second Scholarship, and the Second Scholarship thus vacated may be dealt with as aforesaid. 10.3.05

8. The amount of each Scholarship shall be payable by equal quarterly instalments upon receipt by the Council of satisfactory proof of the Scholar's good conduct during the previous three months, and of his diligent pursuit of one of the courses of study for Degrees. 10.3.05

9. If at the end of any quarterly period satisfactory proof as aforesaid is not received, or if the Scholar fails to attend lectures without sufficient reason, or fails to pass any subsequent examination at which he should present himself in due course, the Council may, if it sees fit, declare the Scholarship vacant. 10.3.05

10. No person shall be permitted to hold at the same time more than one of the Scholarships to be awarded under these Regulations, or a Scholarship in addition to a University Exhibition. 10.3.05

OF THE WILLIAM ROBERT GIBLIN SCHOLARSHIP. 2.9.04

Whereas a sum of £475, including accumulations of interest, has been raised by subscription with the intention of founding a Scholarship in memory of the distinguished public services of the late William Robert Giblin, sometime Attorney-General and Premier, and subsequently one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Tasmania; and whereas the said sum has been paid to the Council of the University of Tasmania to be invested and administered in pursuance of such intention; it is hereby provided as follows:—

1. The said sum of £475, together with any accumulations of interest thereon, shall form the endowment of a Scholarship to be called the William Robert Giblin Scholarship, and shall be invested in such securities authorised by law for the investment of trust moneys as the Council shall from time to time direct; and under no circumstances except as provided in Section 13 may any payment be made from such capital fund for the Scholarship, or for any expenses connected therewith; but such payments shall be made out of the income of the said fund.

2. The Scholarship shall, subject to the provisions of Section 13 of these Regulations, be of the annual value of £15, and shall be tenable for three years, and shall be awarded in every third year,* or more frequently in case of a vacancy as provided in Sections 10 and 11, on the result of the Senior Public Examination, for excellence in the subjects of Group I. It shall be tenable from the first day of January immediately following the examination.

3. Those candidates only shall be qualified for the Scholarship who, being under nineteen years of age on the first day of December of the year in which the examination was held, have passed the examination, have shown creditable proficiency in the subjects of Group I., and have passed at some Public Examination in the subjects prescribed as qualifying for Matriculation.

4. At the close of the Senior Public Examination in each year when the Scholarship is offered for competition, a list of the candidates qualified for the Scholarship shall be prepared, showing their names arranged in order of merit according to the result of examination in the subjects of Group I.

Candidates shall be eligible for the Scholarship in order of such list; and if any candidate declines or fails to take up the Scholarship, it shall be offered to the next candidate on the list.

Provided that no candidate to whom an undivided University Scholarship has been offered in that year shall be eligible for the William Robert Giblin Scholarship.

5. If, in the preparation of the aforesaid list, two or more candidates appear, in the opinion of the Board of Public Examinations, to have shown equal proficiency in the subjects of Group I., the Board shall, in determining their order of merit, take into consideration their relative proficiency in the separate subjects of the Group in the following succession, (1) English History, (2) Elementary Politics, (3) English Language and Literature, (4) Geography, until a subject is found in which a difference of merit is apparent, and the order of such candidates shall be determined by their relative proficiency in that subject.

6. The acceptance of the Scholarship must be communicated to the Registrar within one week of the offer of the Scholarship to the candidate.

The Scholarship shall not be awarded to a successful candidate until he has matriculated, and declared his intention of proceeding to a Degree, and of attending lectures if resident within five miles of the University.

7. The amount of the Scholarship shall be payable by equal quarterly instalments upon receipt by the Council of a satisfactory certificate of the Scholar's good conduct during the previous three months, and of his diligent pursuit of one of the courses of study for Degrees.

* The next award, in the ordinary course, will be at the end of 1907.

8. If at the end of any quarterly period satisfactory proof as aforesaid is not received, or if the Scholar fails to attend lectures without sufficient reason, or fails to pass any subsequent examination at which he should present himself in due course, the Council may, if it sees fit, declare the Scholarship vacant.

9. No person shall be permitted to hold the Scholarship simultaneously with a University Scholarship or University Exhibition.

10. If in any year the Scholarship, being vacant, is not awarded for any cause, it shall be again offered for competition at the Senior Public Examination at the end of that year.

11. If at any time the Scholarship becomes vacant before the first quarterly instalment has been paid, it shall be deemed not to have been awarded, and shall be offered to the next eligible candidate.

If at any time it becomes vacant after any quarterly instalment has been paid, it shall not be offered for the remainder of its term of currency to another candidate, but a new award of the Scholarship shall be made on the result of the Senior Public Examination held in the same year as that in respect of which the last payment was made.

12. Any surplus income and any sums accumulated from the non-awarding of the Scholarship or from vacancies shall be added to and invested in like manner as the capital fund, until a sum shall have accumulated sufficient to increase the annual value of the Scholarship, or to provide for its more frequent award, or to be otherwise applied in carrying out the object of the subscribers in such way as the Council shall think fit and shall duly provide for by Regulations.

13. If at any time the current net income of the capital fund shall be insufficient to meet the annual charge of £15, the depreciation of income shall be met either by a reduction in the annual value of the Scholarship, or by a longer interval being made between the times at which the Scholarship shall be offered for competition, as the Council shall determine.

Provided that if any such deficiency of income arises during a term of currency of the Scholarship, the Council may if it thinks fit maintain the full payment of the Scholarship for such term of currency out of any surplus income which may have accumulated during the said term.

14. Any further or other Regulations respecting the William Robert Giblin Scholarship may from time to time be made repealing or altering these Regulations, provided that such Regulations shall have due regard to the object of the subscribers to the capital fund, as set forth in the Preamble.

OF THE SIR RICHARD DRY PRIZE.

Whereas in the year 1869 a fund was raised by subscription in recognition of the public services of the late Sir Richard Dry, sometime Premier of Tasmania, with the object of perpetuating his memory among the youth of Tasmania : And whereas the said fund, with accumulations, now amounts to the sum of £300, and the subscribers thereto have signified their desire that the said fund should be applied in founding a Prize in the University of Tasmania for the encouragement of learning : And whereas the Council of the University has agreed to the foundation of such Prize in the terms declared by these Regulations. It is hereby provided as follows :—

13.4.05 1. The said sum of £300, together with any accumulations of interest thereon, shall form the endowment of a Prize to be called the Sir Richard Dry Prize, and shall be invested in such securities authorised by law for the investment of trust moneys as the Council shall from time to time direct; and under no circumstances may any payment be made from such capital fund for the Prize, or for any expenses connected therewith; but such payments shall be made out of the income of the said fund.

13.4.05 2. The Prize shall consist of books, and shall be of the value of £10. Provided that the value shall not exceed the income of the fund for the year in which is held the examination whereon the Prize is awarded. A book plate to be provided by the University bearing the crest and motto of the late Sir Richard Dry shall be affixed inside each book.

13.4.05 3. The Sir Richard Dry Prize shall be awarded annually, on the result of the Senior Public Examination, to the candidate who has obtained the highest aggregate of marks in Modern Languages including English.

1.12.93 4. If in any year the Examiners shall be of opinion that no candidate is deserving of the Prize, the Prize shall not be awarded, and the amount thereof shall be added to and become part of the principal sum.

13.4.05 5. Those candidates only shall be eligible for the Prize who, being under nineteen years of age on the first day of December of the year in which the examination was held. have been placed in the First or the Second Class.

1.12.93 6. Any surplus interest, or any sum available by reason of the Prize not having been awarded or of any vacancy, shall be added to the original fund.

13.4.05 7. Any further or other Regulations for the Sir Richard Dry Prize may from time to time be made repealing or altering these Regulations, provided that such Regulations shall have due regard to the objects of the subscribers to this fund as set forth in the Preamble.

OF THE JAMES BACKHOUSE WALKER PRIZE.

26.9.02 Whereas the members of the Legal Profession in Tasmania and Fellows of the Royal Society and certain friends of the late James Backhouse Walker being desirous of perpetuating his memory in the University of Tasmania, of which he was some time Vice-Chancellor, have subscribed a sum of £360, and have signified their desire that the said sum should be applied in founding a prize in the Law School of the University, to be called the "James Backhouse Walker Prize" and whereas the said sum has been paid to and accepted by the Council of the University, which has agreed to the foundation of the said prize in the terms declared in these Regulations; it is hereby provided as follows :—

1. The said sum of £360, together with the accumulations thereof referred to in section 4, shall form the endowment of a prize to be called the James Backhouse Walker Prize, and shall be invested in such securities authorised by law for the investment of trust moneys as the Council shall from time to time direct; and under no circumstances may any payment be made from such capital fund for the prize, or any expenses connected therewith. 26.9.02

2. Out of the income of the said fund there shall be awarded, subject to the provisions of section 5 of these Regulations, in every year, commencing from and including the year 1902, a prize not exceeding Ten guineas to that student of the University who, having in that year completed the Third Examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws, and being qualified to take that Degree, has shown, in the opinion of the Faculty of Law, the greatest proficiency throughout his course. 9.12.04

The Faculty when making its recommendation may in its discretion consider the length of time which a candidate has occupied in completing his course.

3. If in any year the Faculty of Law shall report to the Council that in its opinion no competitor deserves the prize, it shall not be awarded, and the amount thereof shall be added to and form part of the capital fund. 26.9.02

4. Any surplus income and any sums accumulated from the non-awarding of the prize shall be added to and invested in like manner as the capital fund, until a sum shall have accumulated sufficient to found another prize in connection with the Law School, or to be otherwise applied in carrying out the objects and designs of the subscribers in such way as the Council shall think fit and shall duly provide for by Regulations. 26.9.02

5. If at any time the current net income of the capital fund shall be insufficient to meet the amount of the prize then payable, the depreciation of income shall be met either by a reduction in the amount of the prize, or by a longer interval being made between the times at which the prize shall be awarded, as the Council shall determine. 26.9.02

6. Any further or other Regulations respecting the James Backhouse Walker Prize may from time to time be made repealing or altering these Regulations, provided that such Regulations shall have due regard to the objects of the subscribers to the capital fund, as set forth in the Preamble, and shall have been approved by the Faculty of Law. 26.9.02

OF DISCIPLINE.

22.5.96 1. The Professorial Board shall be responsible for the maintenance of discipline among the students of the University, and it shall be the duty of the Chairman of the Professorial Board to exercise a general supervision over all matters connected therewith.

22.5.96 2. For any breach of discipline, or for misconduct of any kind, the Professorial Board shall have power to impose such penalty as is sanctioned by academic usage, including a fine not exceeding three guineas in any one case. No student shall be expelled, or suspended for more than a month, unless the order in that behalf be confirmed by the Board of Studies.

22.5.96 3. Each Professor, Lecturer and Instructor shall have the power of imposing penalties for any breaches of discipline, or for misconduct in his class, which he does not consider of sufficient importance to bring before the Professorial Board. The highest amount of fine which it shall be permissible for any Professor, Lecturer or Instructor to impose for any one offence shall be one guinea.

22.3.94 4. Every fine shall be paid to the Registrar within forty-eight hours from the time of its imposition. If not so paid, the fine shall be doubled; and if the doubled fine be not paid within one week from the time when the original fine was imposed, the Registrar shall report the fact to the Board of Studies, in order that suitable measures may be taken against the offender for his contumacy.

RULES

UNDER THE STATUTE OF AFFILIATION OF THE ZEEHAN SCHOOL OF MINES AND METALLURGY.

[As amended by the Board of Studies, 25. 4. 1907.]

I. Of the Matriculation at the University of Students holding a Diploma of the School.

1. Students holding Diplomas of the School either in Metal Mining or in Metallurgical Chemistry and Assaying may qualify for Matriculation by passing an Entrance Examination in the subjects of—

(1) English Language and Literature, and
(2) Latin, French, or German, of the standard of the Senior Public Examination.

2. These subjects may be taken, either simultaneously or separately, at any Senior Public Examination or at any Special Examination.

3. As regards time and mode of entry, and payment of examination-fees, students must comply with the provisions contained in the Regulations of the Senior Public Examination.

4. Section 1 of the Regulations of the Degree of B.Sc. shall apply to students qualifying for Matriculation under these Rules.

II. Of the equivalence of Studies and Examinations at the School to portions of the courses for Degrees in the University.

5. Students holding Diplomas of the School, who may desire to proceed to a Degree in the University, may make application to be excused from attendance at any practical classes of the University, or from presenting themselves for examination in any subjects of the Ordinary Examinations, on the grounds that the classes attended by them at the School, or the examinations passed by them in the course for their Diploma, are equivalent thereto.

6. The Faculty of Science shall deal with every such application upon its merits, and may in connection therewith take into consideration the class obtained by the Student in any examination, and may obtain any necessary report from the Examiner, or from any Teacher of the School under whom the student has pursued his studies.

7. The Faculty of Science shall decide every such case as it may, in its judgment, think best.

As entries for the September Music Examinations must be sent to the Registrar of the Melbourne University before 7th August, and those for the Tasmanian Public Examinations do not close until 15th October, full fees must be paid in the first instance for the Music Examinations as set out above, but a candidate who takes Music as one of four or more subjects of the Public Examinations (see sec. 4 of the Regulations of the Junior and of the Senior Public Examinations), and so pays to the University of Tasmania the full fee, will be allowed by the University of Melbourne a refund of 10s. for the Junior Public Examination, or 15s. for the Senior Public Examination.

Applications for such refunds should be made, at the time of entry for the Junior or Senior Public Examination, to the Registrar, University of Tasmania, who will forward them to Melbourne for disposal.

An Exhibition providing free tuition at the Melbourne University Conservatorium of Music is offered for competition annually to candidates who have obtained Honours at these Examinations, or who have passed in Grade I. or II. The award is made for one year in the first instance, but is renewable without examination for two further periods of a year, if the Director is satisfied with the work and progress of the Exhibitioner.

A syllabus containing full particulars of the Examinations can be obtained on written application to the Registrar, University of Melbourne, or to the Secretary at any of the above-mentioned Local Centres.

ASSOCIATION WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

In accordance with a resolution passed by the Council in March, 1899, application was made to the University of Oxford to admit the University of Tasmania to the privileges conferred on certain Indian and Colonial Universities. The application was granted on 13 June following.

The following is an Extract from the Oxford University Calendar for 1907: —

"COLONIAL AND INDIAN UNIVERSITIES.

"Members of a University thus admitted may, according to the length of time they have spent at, and the character of the examinations they have passed in their own University, be admitted here to the privileges and status of a Junior or a Senior Colonial or Indian Student.

"For particulars as to the examinations to be passed by such persons before matriculating, and as to the conditions on which, having matriculated, they may be admitted to the remaining examinations, and also as to special conditions affecting Indian Students, reference must be made to the Statute 'On Colonial and Indian Universities' in the volume entitled Statuta Universitatis Oxoniensis published annually at the Clarendon Press."

AFFILIATION TO THE UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

Application was made in March, 1899, to the University of Cambridge to confer on Students from the University of Tasmania the same privileges as are conferred on Students from Colleges affiliated to the University of Cambridge. The University of Tasmania was, by Grace of Senate of 24 May, 1900, adopted as an institution affiliated to the University of Cambridge on the following conditions:—

That Bachelors of Arts or Bachelors of Science of the University of Tasmania, who have satisfied the Examiners in Latin, one other language not being English, and Mathematics, in any one or more of the three annual Examinations required for their Degree, be entitled to be admitted to the privileges of affiliation.

The following is an Extract from the Cambridge University Calendar for 1906-7:—

"AFFILIATED COLLEGES AND CENTRES.

"The University has power to adopt as an affiliated College in any place within the United Kingdom or in any part of the British dominion any institution founded for the education of adult students, with such conditions as to the provision of lectures, and as to the rules and arrangements for the students, as may be determined from time to time by Grace.

"Students of the institution who have continued Members of it for such length of time, not less than two years, and have attended such lectures, and passed such examinations, as may be required from time to time by Grace of the Senate, if admitted as members of the University, are deemed, for such purposes and under such conditions as the Senate may from time to time by Grace determine, to have already kept three terms by residence."

STANDING ORDERS OF THE SENATE.

As amended, 14.9.1904.

Meetings of the Senate.

1. The Senate shall meet at the University or some public building in Hobart.

2. The Senate shall meet for two Sessions in each year in the months of March and September, commencing on the Wednesday next following the second Monday in each of these months; or if any such Wednesday be a public holiday, then upon the day following. It shall, save as provided in next Section, meet from day to day until the Session be closed. Provided that, if there be no business to transact, the Senate shall not be called together. Provided, also, that the Warden or Vice-Warden may cause the holding of any Session to be postponed for any period not exceeding four weeks.

3. The hour for sessional meetings of the Senate shall be 4·15 p.m. A sitting not concluded at 6 p.m. shall be then adjourned. An adjournment from Friday shall be till the following Tuesday at the earliest.

4. The Warden or Vice-Warden, or the Chairman of the Standing Committee, may at any time convene a special meeting of the Senate.

5. Upon the requisition of ten Members of the Senate setting forth the objects for which they desire the special meeting to be convened, the Warden or Vice-Warden, or the Registrar, shall convene a special meeting of the Senate, to be held within not less than seven nor more than fourteen days from the receipt by him of such requisition.

6. For the purpose of enabling notices to be given, a register of the addresses of Members of the Senate, as supplied from time to time by Members, shall be kept by the Registrar.

7. Notice of the time and place appointed for the opening of every Session, and for holding every special meeting, shall be given by circular, sent five clear days previously to the address of each Member resident within five miles of the University, and of such other Members as shall annually intimate their desire to receive the said notice.

Digitized by Google

8. The Warden, or in his absence the Vice-Warden, shall take the chair as soon after the hour of meeting as a quorum is present. If neither the Warden nor the Vice-Warden be present, the Members present shall elect a Chairman.

9. If after the expiration of a quarter of an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the next available day, that is to say—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, not being a public holiday—at the same time and place; and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present the meeting shall lapse. Notice of such meeting shall be given by advertisement.

10. On the arrival of the Warden or Vice-Warden any other Member who may be in the chair shall vacate it.

11. The Senate may adjourn any meeting or debate to a future sitting.

12. If it shall appear on notice being taken, or on the report of a division by the Tellers, that a quorum is not present, the Chairman shall declare the meeting at an end, or adjourned to such time as he shall direct, and such division shall not be entered on the minutes. Provided that if a quarter of an hour have not elapsed from the time prescribed for the beginning of the sitting, and a quorum is again present before the expiration of the quarter of an hour, the sitting shall be resumed.

13. When a sitting is ended from want of a quorum, the business under discussion, and any other business not disposed of, shall be called on at the next sitting, and shall take precedence of all other business.

14. The Senate shall close when all the business is disposed of, or when two consecutive sittings have lapsed for want of a quorum.

15. The Registrar shall, under the direction of the Warden, record in a book the Votes and Proceedings of the Senate, on the model of the Votes and Proceedings of Parliament.

16. At the commencement of each meeting the Votes and Proceedings of the previous meeting shall be read for confirmation.

Notices, Motions, and Questions.

17. The Registrar shall prepare a notice paper of the business of every meeting, and such notice paper shall be sent to Members together with the notice of the meeting.

Digitized by Google

18. The Registrar shall place on the notice paper all notices of motion received by him not less than seven days before the day of meeting.

19. Every notice of motion and every amendment shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the Member putting it forward.

20. All business sent down from the Council shall be taken charge of by some Member of the Council or by some Member of the Senate authorised by the Council.

21. Business shall be called on in the order in which it stands on the notice paper.

22. No Member shall make any motion initiating a subject for discussion except in pursuance of notice duly inserted in the notice paper of that meeting.

23. In the absence of a Member who has given notice of a motion, any Member present may move such motion.

24. A motion or amendment may be amended by the mover with leave of the Senate.

25. Any motion or amendment not seconded shall not be further discussed, and no entry thereof shall be made on the Votes and Proceedings.

26. A motion or amendment may be withdrawn by leave of the Senate granted without a negative voice.

27. The Senate may order a complicated question to be divided.

28. When an amendment has been proposed and seconded, debate shall be confined to the question of making that amendment, and when such debate is ended the Chairman shall put the question, "That the motion be amended as proposed"; and until such question is determined no other amendment shall be proposed. If this question is determined in the affirmative, the motion as amended becomes the substantive motion before the Senate, and if in the negative, the original motion remains the substantive motion before the Senate. In either case such substantive motion may then be further debated, and further amendments thereto may be proposed, one at a time, as in the first instance.

29. When all debate is concluded, and all amendments (if any have been proposed) have been dealt with as provided in the preceding Section, the Chairman shall put the question, "That the motion now before the Senate be agreed to."

30. A question may be suspended—

(a) By a motion "That the Senate proceed to the next business."

(b) By the motion "That the Senate do now adjourn."

31. A debate may be closed by the motion "That the question be now put" being proposed, seconded, and carried, and the question shall be put forthwith without further amendment or debate.

32. A question being put, shall be resolved in the affirmative or negative by the majority of the voices "Aye" or "No."

33. The Chairman shall state whether in his opinion the "Ayes" or "Noes" have it, and unless his opinion shall be acquiesced in by the minority the question shall be determined by a division.

34. No motion or amendment shall be proposed which the Chairman shall rule to be the same in substance as any question which during the same meeting has been resolved in the affirmative or the negative.

Debate.

35. Every Member desiring to speak shall rise in his place and address himself to the Chairman.

36. When two or more Members rise to speak the Chairman shall call upon the Member who first rose in his place.

37. A motion may be made that any Member who has risen "be now heard."

38. Any Member may rise at any time to speak "to order."

39. A Member may speak upon any question before the Senate, or upon any amendment proposed thereto, or upon a motion or amendment to be proposed by himself, or upon a point of order, but not upon the motion "That the question be now put," or that a Member "be now heard."

40. By the indulgence of the Senate, a Member may explain matters of a personal nature, although there be no question before the Senate; but such matters may not be debated.

41. No Member may speak twice to a question before the Senate except in explanation or reply; but a Member who has merely formally seconded a motion or amendment shall not be deemed to have spoken.

42. A Member who has spoken to a question may be again heard to explain himself in regard to some material part of his speech, but shall not introduce any new matter.

43. A reply shall be allowed to a Member who has moved an original substantive motion, on the conclusion of the debate on each amendment that may be successively proposed thereto, and also before the putting of the final question. The mover of an amendment has not the right of reply. Provided that if a motion be so changed by any amendment made that the original mover prefers to regard the Member who proposed such amendment rather than himself as responsible for such amended motion, he may transfer his right of reply during the subsequent stages of the business to such Member.

44. When a Member rises to reply, as provided in the preceding Section, any Member who has not spoken may claim his right to be heard. After such reply, the question shall be put by the Chairman, and no further debate shall be allowed.

45. No Member shall use offensive or unbecoming words in reference to any Member of the Senate.

46. Whenever the Chairman rises during a debate, any Member then speaking, or offering to speak, shall sit down, and the Chairman shall be heard without interruption.

47. If the Chairman desires to take part in a debate, he shall vacate the chair for the time, and another Chairman shall be appointed.

Divisions.

48. No Member shall be entitled to vote in any division, unless he be present when the question is put.

49. Every Member present when a division is taken must vote, except as hereinafter provided.

50. When a division is called for, the Chairman shall direct the "Ayes" to the right and the "Noes" to the left, and shall appoint a Teller for each party.

51. The vote of the Chairman shall be taken before the other votes, without his being required to leave the chair.

52. In case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall give a casting vote; and any reasons stated by him shall be entered in the Votes and Proceedings.

53. An entry of the lists of divisions shall be made by the Registrar in the Votes and Proceedings.

54. In case of confusion or error concerning the numbers reported, unless the same can be otherwise corrected, the Senate shall proceed to another division.

55. No Member shall be entitled to vote upon any question in which he has a direct pecuniary interest; and the vote of any Member so interested shall be disallowed.

56. While the Senate is dividing, Members can speak only to a point of order.

Elections.

57. The offices of Warden and Vice-Warden, and of Members of the Standing Committee, shall become vacant on the 31st day of October in each alternate year, commencing with the 31st October, 1902. Provided that the aforesaid officers shall hold office until their successors are elected.

58. In elections of Warden and Vice-Warden the votes for the office of Warden shall be first counted, and if the newly-elected Warden reside more than five miles from the University, then the nomination of any candidate for the office of Vice-Warden who likewise resides beyond that distance shall be deemed to have been cancelled.

And if, at any time when either the Warden or the Vice-Warden resides more than five miles from the University, the other of those officers commences to reside beyond that distance, he shall thereby vacate his office.

And if, at any time when either the Warden or the Vice-Warden resides more than five miles from the University, the other of those officers vacates his office, no candidate shall be eligible for election to that office unless he resides within that distance.

59. In all elections by the Senate, the Registrar shall act as Returning Officer.

60. In each year immediately after the names of the persons who may have been elected by Members of Parliament to be Members of the Council shall have been officially notified, the Registrar shall issue a circular to all Members of the Senate who are resident in Tasmania, and to such non-resident Members as have intimated their desire to receive such circular, informing them that he will receive nominations of candidates for election as Members of the Council, on or before a day not less than 14 days from the date of such circular.

Digitized by Google

And in each alternate year, commencing with the year 1902, the said circular shall also invite nominations of candidates for election as Warden and as Vice-Warden, and as Members of the Standing Committee, on or before the same day.

Also upon the occasion of any extraordinary vacancy among the Members of the Council elected by the Senate, or in either of the offices of Warden or of Vice-Warden, the Registrar shall issue a circular, as prescribed above, inviting nominations of candidates for election to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the period of currency of the office in question.

61. Every nomination shall be in writing, addressed to the Registrar, and shall be signed by at least two Members of the Senate, and shall be accompanied by the written consent of the candidate or candidates. Separate nominations of single candidates for membership of the Council and of the Standing Committee may be made.

62. Any person nominated as a candidate may, by letter, request the Registrar to cancel his nomination, and the receipt of such letter shall be held to cancel such nomination, and the Registrar shall forthwith inform the Members of the Senate by circular.

63. If no more than the required number of persons be nominated for any office, the Registrar shall thereupon declare such persons elected, and shall cause notice thereof to be published in the Hobart Gazette.

64. If more than the required number of persons be nominated for any office, the Registrar shall fix a day for election within 28, and not less than 14, days from the latest day for receiving nominations. At such election votes shall be given by voting papers only.

65. Every voting paper shall indicate the office or offices for the filling of which the election is held, the cause or occasion of the vacancy, and the time and place fixed for the examination of voting papers; and shall contain lists in the alphabetical order of surnames of the candidates nominated for each office for which the number of candidates is in excess of the number of vacancies. Candidates for membership of the Standing Committee who are Professors, Members of the Council, or persons engaged in teaching, shall be distinguished as such, and a note shall be appended stating the number of candidates of each of the aforesaid descriptions who may be elected.

66. The Registrar shall, within seven days after the last day of nomination for every such election, forward by packet post, to every Member of the Senate who is resident in Tasmania, and to such non-resident Members as shall have intimated their desire to receive such voting paper:—

(1.) A voting paper printed in conformity with the provisions of the preceding Section, and bearing his signature as Returning Officer.

(2.) A copy of Section 68 of the Standing Orders of the Senate.

(3.) Two envelopes of different sizes, having printed on them the address of the Registrar and the superscription "Voting Paper," and the larger having "Signature of Member" and "Date."

67. If any Member transmit to the Registrar two or more voting papers, the voting paper contained in the envelope bearing the most recent date shall be used at the election, and shall be held to cancel all others in envelopes signed by the same Member.

No voting paper, subsequent to the first, shall be issued to any Member, except on his written or personal application.

68. Every Member of Senate voting must conform to the following instructions, disregard or contravention of any part of which shall render his vote invalid.

'1.) The name of each candidate for whom he does not intend to vote must be expunged by him by drawing a line through it on the voting paper, but so that he leaves in each part of the voting paper any number of names not exceeding the number of persons to be elected to the office in question, and in the case of the Standing Committee not exceeding the number of persons of each description who may be elected, and no writing or mark other than the line or lines to be drawn as above provided for.

(2.) The voting paper must be placed in the smaller envelope; this, after being closed up, is to be placed in the larger one, which is to be signed by the Member and dated at the place indicated, and closed up and transmitted to the Registrar so that it is received by him not later than the hour appointed for the examination of voting papers, as stated on the voting paper.

69. The Warden shall appoint three Members of the Senate as Scrutineers to assist the Registrar, and either the Warden or the Vice-Warden shall be present at the examination of the voting-papers.

70. At the time and place appointed, the Registrar, assisted by the Scrutineers, shall proceed to examine the voting papers and to count the votes, shall declare the result of the election, and shall cause notice of the same to be published in the Hobart Gazette.

The following shall be the method and order of procedure for examining the voting papers and counting the votes, and the Registrar shall be responsible that they are strictly complied with:—

(a) The total number of voting packets received shall counted and recorded; and if it be found that any Member has sent more than one voting packet, all voting packets sent by him, except the one bearing the latest date, shall be destroyed unopened.

(b) The Registrar shall open the packets one by one, and, tearing up each outer envelope, hand the enclosed envelope containing the voting paper to a Scrutineer, who shall drop it into a ballot box; this, after being shaken up, shall be opened, and the voting papers taken out of the envelopes by the Registrar one by one, and the results of the scrutiny of each recorded by the Scrutineers on separate lists.

(c) A detailed announcement of the result shall be made at the close of the scrutiny as follows:—

Number of voting packets received.
" Members of Senate who have voted.
" voting papers invalid.
" " " valid.
Total number of votes polled by each candidate for each different office, in order of polling.

71. Any Member of the Senate may be present at the examination of the voting papers.

72. If on the report of the Registrar or of a Scrutineer, the Warden be of opinion that any voting paper is substantially defective, such voting paper shall not be used in the election. Provided that if a voting paper be defective in respect of the marking of the names of candidates for one office, it may, nevertheless, be used in the election of candidates for another office.

73. In case of an equality of votes between candidates, the Warden shall have a casting vote.

74. The Warden shall, subject to the provisions herein contained, determine conclusively all questions of detail concerning the election.

75. In any case where the Warden is a candidate, or is absent, all questions concerning the election shall be determined by the Vice-Warden; or if he also is a candidate, or is absent, then by some Member of the Senate appointed by the Warden or by the Vice-Warden.

Proceedings of the Senate in Committee.

76. A Committee of the Whole Senate is appointed by resolution, "That the Senate do now resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole."

77. There shall be no change of Chairman when the Senate resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole.

78. In Committee Members may speak more than once to the same question.

79. A motion or amendment in Committee need not be seconded. Otherwise, amendments in Committee shall be proposed and dealt with in the manner indicated in Sections 28 and 29. A motion to proceed to the next business may not be made in Committee.

80. A Committee of the Whole may at any time report progress, and upon such report the Senate shall be declared resumed.

81. When all matters referred to a Committee of the Whole have been considered, the Chairman, on a motion made and carried, "That the Senate do now resume," shall declare the Senate resumed, and shall propose the question "That the Senate agree to the resolutions of the Committee," and the question shall be resolved in the affirmative or the negative, or the matter may be re-committed for further consideration.

Standing Committee.

82. There shall be a Standing Committee, consisting of Five Members of the Senate, of whom one and not more than one shall be a Professor of the University, and one and not more than one shall be a Member of the Council other than a Professor, and at least one shall be a person engaged in teaching in Tasmania otherwise than at the University.

83. Any extraordinary vacancy shall be filled up by an appointment by the remaining Members of the Standing Committee, who in making such appointment shall have regard for the provisions of the preceding Section. Provided that no person may be appointed as a Member of the Standing Committee without his consent.

84. The Standing Committee shall appoint a Chairman at its first meeting after each biennial election, or after a vacancy has occurred in the office of Chairman. The Chairman shall have a deliberative but not a casting vote. Three Members shall constitute a quorum.

85. Every matter which the Council may resolve to transmit to the Senate for its approval shall forthwith be communicated by the Registrar to the Chairman of the Standing Committee, who shall at his discretion call the Committee together to draw up a report thereon; and such report shall be presented to the Senate at its next meeting, and may be circulated to Members prior thereto, if the Standing Committee consider it advisable. Provided that in the absence of such report the Senate may nevertheless proceed with the consideration of such matter.

86. The Senate may at any meeting refer any matter to the Standing Committee for its consideration and report.

87. Any Member of the Senate may at any time bring proposals or notices of motion before the Chairman, who may at his discretion bring the same before the Committee for its consideration; and the Committee may confer with such Member, and may report to the Senate upon such matter, as it may think fit.

Suspension of Standing Orders.

88. Any of these Standing Orders may be suspended for the time being on motion made, with or without notice, provided that a quorum be present, and that such motion shall have the concurrence of at least three-fourths of the Members present.

The Council.

The Council consists of eighteen Members, nine of whom are elected by the Senate, and eight by the Members of both Houses of Parliament. The Minister of Education for the time being is ex officio a Member of Council. (54 Vict. No. 25, s. 3.)

Members elected by the Senate remain in office for three years, three of them retiring each year; and Members elected by Parliament remain in office for two years, four of them retiring each year. (53 Vict. No. 41, s. 3.)

Extraordinary vacancies among the Members of Council elected by Parliament are filled by elections by the Members of the House of Assembly and of the Legislative Council alternately. All other extraordinary vacancies are filled by an election by the Senate. A Member elected to fill an extraordinary vacancy holds office for the residue of the period for which his predecessor was elected. (54 Vict. No. 25, s. 4.)

The seats of retiring Members become vacant on the 31st December in each year, and Members elected to fill the vacant seats come into office on the 1st January immediately following. (Statutes: Chap II. s. 7.)

Senior Exhibitioners.

Exhibitions, each of the value of £50 per annum, tenable for three years from October, 1891, were awarded on the result of the Associate of Arts Examination, 1890, to John Henry Keating.

Samuel Picken.

University Scholars.

Two First Scholarships, each of the annual value of £25, and two Second Scholarships of the value of £15, tenable for three years, are awarded annually on the result of the Senior Public Examination, to the candidates who pass the best examination in certain specified subjects of Groups I. and II., and of Groups III. and IV., respectively, and who otherwise fulfil the requirements of the Regulations.

Previous to 1898, the value of each Scholarship was £50 per annum, two only being given.

From 1898 to 1904 inclusive, the value of each Scholarship was £25 per annum, the number given each year depending on circumstances.

RECORDS OF THE ORDINARY AND SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATIONS.

(For previous years, from the beginning, see Calendar for 1905-6 pp. 94–120.)

The dates following a candidate's name refer to the previous years in which that name appears in the records.

The symbols C1, C2, C3, C, P, signify First Class Credit, Second Class Credit, Third Class Credit, Unclassified Credit, and Pass, respectively.

The entries in square brackets indicate examinations completed, on the occasion in question.

Supplementary Examinations are included in the record and under the date of the preceding Ordinary Examination, the subjects being distinguished by a §.

The names of non-matriculated students are printed in italics.

An entry of the name of a subject which occurs in the Regulations of two Degrees indicates that the conditions as required for both Degrees were fulfilled, unless the candidate was a non-matriculated student, or unless a distinguishing word (as "Arts") follows the name of the subject.

DETAILS AND BOOKS.

JUNIOR PUBLIC EXAMINATION.

DETAILS OF SUBJECTS

Of the Junior Public Examination for the Year 1907, and until further notice.

GROUP I.

1. ENGLISH GRAMMAR, INCLUDING DICTATION.

Parsing, analysis of sentences, and general questions; a short composition on a given subject; writing from Dictation.

Book recommended: West's English Grammar for Beginners (Pitt Press).

2. ENGLISH HISTORY.

(a) A prescribed period of English History

(b) Outlines of Tasmanian History.

Book recommended: Lovell's Centenary of Tasmania (Government Printing Office). [Now reprinted as "Tasmania, its First Century."]

Candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiner in both parts of this subject.

3. GEOGRAPHY, for 1907.

The use of the commonest terms employed in elementary mathematical geography; the shape of the earth, causes of day and night, the seasons, &c.; the distribution of land and water; principal mountain ranges, rivers, and physical features extending over large areas.

Principal political divisions, and principal places; the characteristic natural products of various countries.

In both physical and political geography a more detailed knowledge of Tasmania than of other countries will be expected.

A large scale map, with contour lines, &c., may be furnished to candidates, and simple questions asked thereon.

Some portion of Australasia or the British Isles will be given as the subject of a map. Maps of any of the continents, to show the chief physical features only, may also be asked for.

3. GEOGRAPHY, for 1908 and subsequent years.

The following words are added at end of 1st paragraph:—

"the movements of air and water on the earth's surface; elementary facts of climate and meteorology."

For last paragraph there is substituted—

"An outline map of some continent or of some portion of Australasia or the British Isles will be given, to be filled in as required.

"Every candidate must be provided with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths of an inch, and in centimetres and millimetres."

And there is added at the end:—

"Book recommended: L'Estrange's Progressive Course of Comparative Geography (Philip & Son); parts marked A and B. Notwithstanding a few obvious errors, the method of presenting the subject is so admirable that the book is strongly recommended. More detailed knowledge of Tasmania will be expected than is obtainable from this book."

Group II.

4. Latin.
5. Greek.
6. French.
7. German.
8. Italian.

Including in each case:—The grammar of the language; translation of passages from a prescribed book, and of easy sentences at sight from the language into English, and vice versâ; questions on the subject-matter of the prescribed book.

Questions on the notes to the text-books in modern languages will be confined to matters of value in the study of the several languages.

Candidates are advised to use English characters in writing German.

Books recommended: Postgate's First Latin Primer; Rutherford's Greek Accidence; Beuzemaker's First French Course (Blackie); Lechner's First German Course (Blackie); Benelli and Marucelli-Petri's New Italian Grammar, part ii. (Florentine Typographical Society, Florence, 1901).

Group III.

9. Arithmetic.

(A) Notation and numeration, the first four rules (simple and compound), reduction, practice, simple and compound proportion, simple interest, vulgar and decimal fractions, percentages.

†(B) Questions of a more difficult character, which may include profit and loss, compound interest, square root, easy mensuration of rectangular surfaces and solids, and miscellaneous problems involving the principles indicated above.

The use of algebraic symbols and processes will be permitted.

Candidates will be expected to know the tables of avoirdupois weight, linear measure, square measure, capacity (pints, quarts, gallons), English money, time; and in the metric system, the metre, the gramme, and the litre, with their multiples and submultiples. Questions may be set involving the franc and the centime, the dollar and the cent, and the mark and the pfennig. It is recommended that the metric system be taught in applications to actual measurements to be executed by the pupil himself; the measures and weights being actually shown to, and handled by, the pupil.

As far as possible the questions set will have a practical bearing on every-day life. No questions will be set involving long reductions, elaborate recurring decimals, calculations of compound interest for long periods, or cube root. It is recommended that special rules on the following subjects, namely, equation of payments, compound partnership, alligation, duodecimals, should not be taught.

Teachers are recommended to lay stress on the constant use of rough checks in arithmetical work, especially in regard to the position of the decimal point.

10. ALGEBRA.

(A) Definitions and explanations of algebraic signs and terms; verification of the fundamental arithmetical and algebraic laws by the demonstration of particular cases; symbolic expression; addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division of algebraic quantities; factors, highest common factor, lowest common multiple; fractions; equations of the first degree, and problems producing such equations.

†(B) Questions of a more difficult character, which may include simultaneous equations of the first degree, problems producing such equations, square root, quadratic equations involving only one unknown quantity, and the laws of positive integral indices. Questions may be set on the use of graphs in the solution of equations of the first degree and of quadratic equations involving one unknown quantity, as contained in Hall's Introduction to Graphical Algebra, pp. 1-15 (Macmillan, 1s.); when such questions are set squared paper will be provided.

11. GEOMETRY.

(A) Practical Geometry.—The following constructions and easy extensions of them :—Bisection of angles and of straight lines; perpendiculars to straight lines; simple cases of the construction from sufficient data of triangles and of quadrilaterals; parallels to a given straight line; angles equal to a given angle; division of straight lines into a given number of equal parts.

In cases where the validity of a construction is not obvious candidates may be required to indicate the reasoning by which it is justified.

Theoretical Geometry.—The substance of the theorems contained in Euclid, Book I., Propositions 4-6, 8, 13-16, 18, 19, 26-30, 32-41, 43, 47, 48. Simple loci, such as the locus of points equidistant from two given straight lines, and the locus of points equidistant from two given points. Questions upon these theorems, easy deductions from them, and arithmetical illustrations will be included.

†(B) Practical Geometry.—The following constructions and easy extensions of them :—Construction of a triangle equal in area to a given polygon; tangents to a circle; common tangents to two circles; circumscribed, inscribed, and escribed circles of a triangle.

Candidates will be expected to be acquainted with the forms of the cube, rectangular block, prism, sphere, cylinder, and cone.

Theoretical Geometry.—The substance of the theorems contained in Euclid, Book III., Propositions 3, 14-16, 18-22, 31. Questions upon these theorems, easy deductions from them, and arithmetical illustrations will be included.

Book recommended: Godfrey and Siddons' Elementary Geometry (Cambridge University Press, 3s. 6d.).

Digitized by Google

It is recommended that a course of practical and experimental geometry should precede the formal study of demonstrative geometry.

Questions will be set so as to bring out as far as possible a knowledge of the principles of Geometry. Any proof of a Proposition will be accepted which appears to the Examiners to form part of a logical order of treatment of the subject. In the proof of theorems and deductions from them, the use of hypothetical constructions will be permitted. Teachers are recommended to give preference to proofs of Propositions based as far as possible on first principles. Angles may be regarded as generated by rotation. The limit definition of a tangent will be allowed.

Every candidate must be provided with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths of an inch, and in centimetres and millimetres, a small set square, a protractor, compasses furnished with a hard pencil point, and a hard pencil. Figures should be drawn accurately with a hard pencil. Questions may be set on the use of squared paper.

Teachers are recommended to consult the Report on the Teaching of Elementary Mathematics issued by the Mathematical Association (G. Bell and Sons, 6*d.* net), and the report of the Discussion on the Teaching of Mathematics at the Meeting of the British Association, 1901, edited by Professor Perry (Macmillan, 2*s.* net).

Group IV.

(Special weight will be assigned to answers affording evidence that the candidate has received practical instruction.)

12. Elementary Inorganic Science.

(a) Experimental Mechanics.

The practical methods of measuring lengths, areas, and volumes. Comparison of scales. The use of squared paper.

Weight, the spring balance, the use of the common balance, including the method of double weighing.

Experiments with the simple pendulum to show the influence of the length of string, the mass of the bob, and the amplitude of vibration respectively on the time of oscillation.

Elementary properties of matter, such as the distinction between solids, liquids, and gases; bending and stretching of solids.

Experimental verification of the principle of Archimedes. Determination of densities. Experiments to illustrate the pressure of the air.

In certain cases, as indicated above, the questions will deal with measurement. A knowledge of the metric system will be required. Candidates will be required to bring drawing-instruments, including a scale graduated in centimetres and millimetres.

(b) Heat and Light.

Simple experimental observations on the effects of heat on bodies to illustrate expansion and change of state. The use of common thermometers. Simple methods of measuring quantities of heat. Simple observations on the transmission of heat by conduction, convection, and radiation.

Reflection and refraction of light; the formation of images by single reflectors and by single lenses. Graphic methods of determining the position and size of an image. The combination of two convex lenses to form a microscope or telescope.

Candidates will be required to bring drawing instruments, including a scale graduated in centimetres and millimetres.

(c) Magnetism and Electricity.

Simple experiments on the magnetic properties of iron and steel, including mapping lines of force by iron filings. Induction. Comparison of the moments of magnets by the deflection method.

Behaviour of electrified bodies. Induction. Electroscope and electrophorus.

The Leclanché cell. The magnetic, chemical, and thermal effects of currents. Tangent galvanometer and voltameter. Incandescent lamp actuated by a battery.

Combustion, changes which occur when a candle burns, and when magnesium burns.

The air, its chief constituents, the preparation and properties of oxygen and nitrogen. The effects of plants, animals, and burning bodies on the air.

Water, its evaporation and distillation; the composition of water; the preparation and properties of hydrogen; spring water, sea water, hard water, soft water, rain water.

Solution and crystallisation.

Chalk, lime, carbonic acid gas, carbon, coal, coal-gas, nitric and hydrochloric acids, washing soda.

The differences between elements and compounds.

Book recommended: Geikie's Physical Geography (Macmillan's Science Primers).

Candidates in this subject must take two and only two of the subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), and will be required to satisfy the Examiners in both of the subdivisions taken.

Teachers of (a), (b), and (d), are recommended to consult H. E. Armstrong's Special Report on the Heuristic Method of Teaching, Appendix A. (Eyre and Spottiswood, 3*d*.)

13. ELEMENTARY ORGANIC SCIENCE.

The external form, naked-eye structure, and life of flowering plants; the forms and functions of roots, stems, and foliage leaves; the uses of the several parts of a flower, and the differences of structure of some common flowers; fruits and seeds, their structure, dispersal, &c.; the germination and growth of a flowering plant; and the food supply of green plants.

Book recommended as an introduction to Botany: Atkinson's First Studies in Plant Life (Ginn, 2*s*. 6*d*.).

(b) Agricultural Science.

Books recommended: Wright's Agriculture for Beginners (Blackie, 1*s*.); Burkett, Stevens, and Hill's Agriculture for Beginners (Ginn) is recommended to teachers, especially the sections on fruit trees.

(c) Physiology.

Book recommended: Leonard Hill's Physiology for Beginners (Arnold).

Digitized by Google

Candidates in this subject must take two and only two of the sub-divisions (a), (b), (c), or one of them together with either Chemistry or Physiography as defined in subject No. 12, provided that no candidate who takes either Chemistry or Physiography may also take it as a part of that subject. Candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiners in both of the subdivisions taken.

Group V.

14. Drawing.

Drawing in pencil from a symmetrical outline ornament altering the dimensions, or from a simple model of geometrical forms. No shading will be required.

(b) Geometrical.

Simple problems on the construction of plane figures and scales.

Book recommended: Rawle's Practical Plane Geometry.

Candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiner in both parts of this subject.

15. Shorthand.

Candidates will be required to take down passages read aloud, and afterwards to transcribe them. Candidates will be required to hand in their shorthand notes and the longhand transcript. Passages will be dictated at the rates of 40 words and 60 words a minute. The passages will not exceed 300 words each, and the time allowed for transcription will be at the rate of 10 words a minute.

Notes.

The books recommended in these Details are not prescribed, but indicate approximately the amount and kind of work expected from candidates.

For the text-books prescribed for the subjects of Group II., candidates are referred to the list annually published.

There is one paper set in each subject, and the time allowed for each is two hours, except for English Grammar, in which an extra half-hour is allowed for Dictation. In Shorthand, the time allowed is determined by the length of the passages given.

† Candidates can obtain a pass without presenting the portions of subjects marked (B).

LIST OF BOOKS, &c.

Prescribed for Examinations in 1907 and 1908.

English History—

1907.—Prescribed period: From 1603 to the present time. [Oman's Junior History of England, (Arnold). Recommended.]

1908.—Period from the earliest times to 1660. [Oman's Junior History of England, (Arnold). Recommended.

Group II.

Latin—

1907.—Cæsar: Gallic War, Book III., ed. J. Brown, (Blackie's Illustrated Latin Series).

1908.—Caesar: Gallic War, Book IV., ed. J. Brown, (Blackie's Illustrated Latin Series).

Greek—

1907.—Xenophon: Anabasis, Book II., ed. E. C. Marchant, (Bell's Illustrated Classical Series).

1908.—Xenophon: Anabasis, Book III., ed. E. C. Marchant, (Bell's Illustrated Classics).

French—

1907.—Ségur: Mémoires d'un Ane. (Arnold.)
Verne: Un Drame dans les Airs. (Arnold.)
Barbé: French Songs, Nos. 1, 2, 12, 20, 21. (Words only.) (Blackie's Little French Classics.)

1908.—Gennevraye: Marchand d'Allumettes, (Siepmann's French Series, Macmillan).
Stahl: Un Anniversaire à Londres; Les Quatre Cri-Cris de la Boulangère. (Arnold.)

German—

1907.—Schrader: Friedrich der Grosse. (Siepmann's Series, Macmillan.)
Powell: German Songs, Nos. 1, 2, 7, 8, 10. (Words only.) (Blackie's Little German Classics.)

1908.—Savory: A First German Reader (Stories only), (Arnold).
Wachenhusen: Vom ersten bis zum letzten Schuss, (Siepmann's Series, Macmillan).
Powell: German Songs, Nos. 11, 17, 24 (Words only), (Blackie's Little German Classics).

Italian—

1907.—Goldoni: Il Vero Amico. (D. C. Heath & Co.)

1908.—Bowen: Italian Reader, pp. 37-102, (Heath & Co.).

SENIOR PUBLIC EXAMINATION.

DETAILS OF SUBJECTS

Of the Senior Public Examination for the Year 1907, and until further notice.

Group I.

1. English Language and Literature.

Questions on the subject-matter of two prescribed books, including points of grammatical construction, derivation and meaning of words, &c., quotations from indicated portions of the prescribed books; English grammar, including parsing and analysis of sentences; an essay on a given subject.

Candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiner in the essay (to which 25 per cent. of the total marks will be allotted) and either in both of the prescribed books, or in one of the prescribed books and grammar.

To obtain credit candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiner in all portions of the subject.

Book recommended: West's Elements of English Grammar (Pitt Press).

2. English History.

(a) Outlines of English History.

Book recommended: Ransome's Elementary History of England (Rivingtons).

(b) A prescribed period of English History.

(c) Outlines of Australian History.

Book recommended: Sutherland's History of Australia and New Zealand (Longmans). [For Australia and Tasmania only.]

In this subject candidates may mention in their papers any text-books which they have studied other than those recommended.

Candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiner in each of the three parts of the subject.

3. Geography, for 1907.

The elements of mathematical geography, including the principal map-projections; the shape and movements of the earth; the distribution of land and water; the physical features of continents and oceans; the movements of air and water on the earth's surface; the principal phenomena of climate and meteorology.

Political divisions and places of importance; natural products, industries, and modes of government of various countries; races of man. Importance will be attached to a knowledge of the relation between the physical features of a country and its political and commercial geography.

In both physical and political geography a more detailed knowledge of Australia than of other countries will be expected.

A large scale map, with contour lines, &c., may be furnished to candidates and questions asked thereon.

Maps, to illustrate physical or political features of any country or considerable region of the world, may be asked for.

3. GEOGRAPHY, for 1908 and subsequent years.

There is inserted after "map-projections" in 1st paragraph:—

"especially such knowledge of the distortions characterising them as is necessary for a proper interpretation of the map."

For last paragraph there is substituted:—

"An outline map of some country or considerable region of the world will be given, to be filled in as required.

"Every candidate must be provided with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths of an inch, and in centimetres and millimetres."

And there is added at the end:—

"Book recommended: L'Estrange's Progressive Course of Comparative Geography (Philip and Son). Notwithstanding a few obvious errors, the method of presenting the subject is so admirable that the book is strongly recommended. More detailed knowledge of Australia will be expected than is obtainable from this book."

4. ELEMENTARY POLITICS.

The origin of civilised society, the state and its functions, the processes of government and legislation, fundamental economic ideas. The main features of the Constitutions of the State of Tasmania and of the Commonwealth of Australia.

Books recommended: Jenks' History of Politics (Dent), Raleigh's Elementary Politics (Clarendon Press), Bruce Smith's Our Commonwealth (Edwards, Dunlop, & Co., Sydney).

GROUP II.

5. LATIN. *
6. GREEK.
7. FRENCH.
8. GERMAN.
9. ITALIAN.

Including in each case:—Translation from prescribed books, and of passages at sight; grammatical questions, and questions on the subject-matter of the prescribed books; translation of passages of ordinary English prose into the language.

Candidates in each of the above subjects will be required to satisfy the Examiner in composition and unseen translation.

Questions on the notes to the text-books in modern languages will be confined to matters of value in the study of the several languages.

Candidates are advised to use English characters in writing German.

Books recommended: Postgate's New Latin Primer; Goodwin's School Greek Grammar; Beuzemaker's Second French Course (Blackie); Baumann's Second German Course (Blackie); Benelli and Marucelli-Petri's New Italian Grammar (Florentine Typographical Society, Florence, 1901).

* Henceforward, in the printing of the papers, the symbols j and v will no longer be used.

Group III.

10. Arithmetic.

(A) The ordinary rules (see exceptions below); arithmetic as applied to ordinary questions of commerce and trade, including such questions as arise out of bills, interest, percentages, purchase and sale of stocks and shares; mensuration of rectangular surfaces and solids; approximate methods of multiplication and division, omitting figures unnecessary to the degree of approximation desired.

†(B) Questions of a more difficult character: mensuration of simple rectilinear surfaces and solids, and of the circle, the sphere, the cylinder, and the cone; the use of four-figure logarithms of numbers. Questions may be set involving the use of squared paper; when such questions are set squared paper will be provided.

The use of algebraic symbols and processes will be permitted.

As far as possible the questions set will have a practical bearing on every-day life. No questions will be set involving long reductions, elaborate recurring decimals, calculation of compound interest for long periods by the ordinary arithmetical process, or the arithmetical rule for the extraction of cube root. It is recommended that special rules on the following subjects, namely, equation of payments, compound partnership, alligation, duodecimals, should not be taught.

Teachers are recommended to lay stress on the constant use of rough checks in arithmetical work, especially in regard to the position of the decimal point, the use of contracted methods of multiplying and dividing, and the fallacy of retaining more figures than are justifiable in calculations involving numbers which represent observed or measured quantities.

Each candidate will be supplied with tables containing four-figure logarithms of the numbers from 100 to 999, with proportional parts, and the corresponding anti-logarithms. These tables are those published by the Board of Education, South Kensington, for the use of students; copies can be obtained from the Registrar, price 1d. each.

Teachers are recommended to consult Perry's Practical Mathematics, Lecture I. (published by the Board of Education, South Kensington, price 6d.).

11. Algebra, for 1907.

(A) Definitions and explanations of algebraic signs and terms; proof of arithmetical and algebraic laws; symbolic expression; addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division of algebraic quantities; factors, highest common factor, lowest common multiple; fractions; equations of first and second degree, simultaneous equations of first and second degree, and easy problems producing such equations; square root; theory of indices; elementary properties of logarithms; ratio and proportion; the use of graphs in the representation of simple algebraic functions, and in the solution of equations of the first and second degree, as contained in Hall's Introduction to Graphical Algebra, pp. 1-20 (Macmillan, 1s.).

†(B) Questions of a more difficult character; the remainder theorem; surds; variation; the three progressions; permutations and combinations; binomial theorem for a positive integral exponent; the exponential theorem; the use of graphs in elementary algebra, as contained in Hall's Introduction to Graphical Algebra, pp. 1-47 (Macmillan, 1s.).

Questions will be set so as to bring out as far as possible a knowledge of the principles and applications of the subject, rather than to test skill in the manipulation of artificially complicated expressions. The comparison of the algebraic definition of proportion with that given by Euclid, and a knowledge of the meaning of such terms as "duplicate ratio" will not be required.

When questions are set on graphs, squared paper will be provided. Teachers are recommended to consult Perry's Practical Mathematics, Lectures II.-V.

11. ALGEBRA, for 1908 and subsequent years.

There is added at the end of paragraph (A), "together with easy deductions from the above."

12. GEOMETRY.

(A) Practical Geometry.—The following constructions and easy extensions of them:—Bisection of angles and of straight lines; perpendiculars to straight lines; simple cases of the construction from sufficient data of triangles and of quadrilaterals; parallels to a given straight line; angles equal to a given angle; division of straight lines into a given number of equal parts; construction of a triangle equal in area to a given polygon; tangents to a circle; common tangents to two circles; circumscribed, inscribed, and escribed circles of a triangle; segment of a circle containing an angle of given magnitude; division of straight lines into parts in any given proportion; fourth proportional to three given straight lines, and mean proportional to two given straight lines; division of straight lines in extreme and mean ratio; division of a straight line internally or externally into segments so that the rectangle contained by the parts is equal to a given square; regular polygons in and about circles; construction of a circle from sufficient data of the following character:—(1) radius given, (2) point on the circle given, (3) contact with a given straight line or circle, (4) contact with a given straight line at a given point; construction of a rectilineal figure to a specified scale or of specified area, and similar to a given figure; and of a square equal in area to a given polygon.

In cases where the validity of a construction is not obvious, candidates may be required to indicate the reasoning by which it is justified.

Candidates will be expected to be acquainted with the forms of the simpler solid bodies, namely, the cube, rectangular block, prism, tetrahedron, sphere, cylinder, pyramid, and cone.

Theoretical Geometry.—The substance of the theorems contained in Euclid, Book I., Propositions 4-6, 8, 13-16, 18, 19, 26-30, 32-41, 43, 47, 48; Book III.,

Digitized by Google

Propositions 3, 14-16, 18-22, 31, 32; Book II., Propositions 1-7, 12, 13, together with Apollonius' Theorem; Book III., Propositions 35-37; Book VI., Propositions 1-8, 23, 19, 33, A, B, C, and D. Questions upon these theorems, easy deductions from them, and arithmetical illustrations will be included.

Books recommended: Godfrey and Siddons' Elementary Geometry (Cambridge University Press, 3s. 6d.), or Hall and Stevens' School Geometry, Parts I.-V. (Macmillan, 4s. 6d.).

†(B) Questions of a more difficult character on the portions of the subject required for a pass. The elementary properties of:—the simpler loci connected with the straight line, triangle, and circle; orthogonal circles; the orthocentre of a triangle; Simson's line; maxima and minima of geometrical magnitudes; the simpler circles connected with a triangle; harmonic ranges and pencils; complete quadrilaterals; similar figures; inverse points and figures; poles and polars; radical axes; transversals. The substance of the theorems contained in Euclid, Book XI. to Proposition 21, with deductions and arithmetical illustrations. The elementary properties of the cube, parallelepiped, tetrahedron, pyramid, prism, right cylinder, right cone, sphere.

Book recommended: Hall and Stevens' School Geometry, Parts I.-VI. (Macmillan, 6s.).

Questions will be set so as to bring out as far as possible a knowledge of the principles of Geometry. Any proof of a Proposition will be accepted which appears to the Examiners to form part of a logical order of treatment of the subject. In the proof of theorems and deductions from them, the use of hypothetical constructions will be permitted. Teachers are recommended to give preference to proofs of Propositions based as far as possible on first principles. Angles may be regarded as generated by rotation. The limit definition of a tangent will be allowed. In dealing with proportion it may be assumed that all magnitudes of the same kind can be treated as commensurable. All statements of ratio may be made in fractional form, and the sign = used instead of : : Algebraic methods may be used in proving the Propositions of Book II., but candidates should be able to prove that the area of the rectangle contained by lines whose lengths are a units and b units, is ab square units, where a and b are any commensurable numbers.

Every candidate must be provided with a ruler graduated in inches and tenths of an inch, and in centimetres and millimetres, a small set square, a protractor, compasses furnished with a hard pencil-point and a hard pencil. Figures should be drawn accurately with a hard pencil. Questions may be set on the use of squared paper.

13. PLANE TRIGONOMETRY.

(A) Sexagesimal and radian measures; angles of any magnitude, positive and negative, and their trigonometric ratios; ratios for 0°, 30°, 45°, 60°, 90°; variations of the ratios; ratios of allied angles (supplements, &c.), and general expressions for angles having same ratio; ratios of compound angles and of multiples and sub-multiples; inverse ratios; equations; easy problems depending on the above.

Digitized by Google

† (B) Properties of triangles and polygons, including the related circles; logarithms in trigonometry; solution of triangles and heights and distances; approximate values of the ratios of small angles; problems depending on the above. Candidates will be provided with copies of McAulay's Logarithmic Tables (Macmillan).

14. STATICS, INCLUDING HYDROSTATICS.

(A) Books recommended: Hamblin Smith's Statics (omitting proof of Parallelogram of Forces), and Hamblin Smith's Hydrostatics.

† (B) Book recommended: Loney's Mechanics and Hydrostatics (omitting the chapters on "Dynamics.");

Both for pass and credit, the Parallelogram of Forces is to be regarded as based on experiment.

GROUP IV.

Special weight will be assigned to answers affording evidence that the candidate has received practical instruction.

15. PHYSICS.

The elements of Mechanics, Heat, Light, Sound, Electricity, and Magnetism.

Book recommended: Everett's Elementary Text-book of Physics (omitting articles 294-329, 354-356, 364-370 and supplementary notes, 410-414, and 460-462).

16. CHEMISTRY.

The physical properties of gases; the non-metallic elements and their chief inorganic compounds; the properties of metals as a class.

Book recommended: Remsen's Elements of Chemistry.

17. PHYSIOLOGY AND HYGIENE.

Books recommended: Huxley's Lessons in Elementary Physiology (omitting lesson x.), and Reynolds' Primer of Hygiene.

18. BOTANY.

The general structure and physiology of plants, and the structure of cells and tissues in detail. The general principles of classification.

Candidates will be expected to have a general acquaintance with the characteristic features of the following Natural Orders:—Ranunculaceæ, Cruciferæ, Rutaceæ, Malvaceæ, Leguminosæ, Casuarineæ, Myrtaceæ, Umbelliferæ, Proteaceæ, Compositæ, Liliaceæ, Orchideæ, Graminaceæ.

Plants and parts of plants may be given for description. Candidates should bring with them a pocket lens and a dissecting needle.

Books recommended: Edmonds' Elementary Botany, or Vines' Elementary Text-book of Botany, for 1907. Ewart's New Matriculation Botany, (University Tutorial Press, London) for 1908.

19. GEOLOGY.

The elementary principles of physical and stratigraphical geology and palæontology. Candidates may be required to identify specimens of the commoner rocks and fossils.

Books recommended: Geikie's Class-book of Geology, (4th edition, 1902). Twelvetrees' Outlines of the Geology of Tasmania (for the use of Teachers).

Group V.

20. Drawing.

Drawing in pencil from an outline ornament, altering the dimensions.

Drawing in pencil from a plaster model, or from a group of solids of simple form.

(c) Geometrical.

Books recommended: Gill's School of Art Geometry, or Rawle's Practical Plane Geometry.

Simple problems in parallel and angular perspective.

Book recommended: Hodge's Perspective.

Candidates will be required to satisfy the Examiner in three at least of the parts of this subject.

21. Shorthand.

Candidates will be required to take down passages read aloud, and afterwards to transcribe them. Candidates will be required to hand in their shorthand notes and the longhand transcript. Passages will be dictated at the rates of 70 words and 90 words a minute. The passages will not exceed 300 words each, and the time allowed for transcription will be at the rate of 10 words a minute.

Notes.

The Books recommended in these Details are not prescribed, but indicate approximately the amount and kind of work expected from candidates.

For the text-books prescribed for the subjects of Groups I. and II., candidates are referred to the list annually published.

In Latin and Greek, two papers of three hours each are set; in English, four papers of 1½ hour each are set, namely, one in each of the prescribed books, one in English Grammar, and an essay. In Drawing, one paper of 1½ hour is set in each of the four parts. In Shorthand, the times allowed are determined by the length of the passages given. In each of the other subjects, one paper of 3 hours is set.

† Candidates can obtain a pass without presenting the portions of subjects marked (B).

LIST OF BOOKS, &c.

GROUP I.

1907.—Scott: Ivanhoe, (Macmillan's English Classics).
Tennyson: Selections, ed. E. C. Everard Owen, (Arnold).
Portions of Tennyson to be learnt by heart—
The Lady of Shallot, lines 1-117.
The Lotos-Eaters, lines 1-45.
A Dream of Fair Women, lines 85-120.
Morte d'Arthur, lines 1-147, 239-264.
Death of the Duke of Wellington, 151-231.

1908.—Essays from Addison, ed. J. H. Fowler, (Macmillan).
Selected Poems of Matthew Arnold, ed. Richard Wilson, (Arnold).
Portions of Matthew Arnold to be learnt by heart—
Sohrab and Rustum, lines 555-574, 770-793.
Balder Dead (I.), lines 288-330; (II.), lines 157-175; (III.), lines 75-88, 99-122, 186-206, 313-325, 361-374, 523-554.
The Church of Brou, (II.), lines 1-40.
The Scholar-Gipsy, lines 71-130, 231-250.
The Forsaken Merman, lines 30-63.
Memorial Verses, lines 34-57.
The poems entitled Quiet Work, Shakespeare, and Morality (all).

ENGLISH HISTORY—

1907.—Period from 1603 to 1689. [Gardiner's Student's History of England, Vol. II., (Longmans). Recommended.]

1908.—Period from 1689 to 1763. [Gardiner's Student's History of England, Vol. III., (Longmans). Recommended.]

GROUP II.

LATIN—

1907.—Virgil: Aeneid, Book VI., ed. J. T. Phillipson, (Bell's Illustrated Classics).
Cicero: de Senectute, ed. J. S. Reid, (Pitt Press).

1908.—Virgil: Aeneid, Book I., ed. M. T. Tatham, (Arnold).
Livy: Book IX., Chapters 1-40, ed. H. M. Stephenson, (Pitt Press).

GREEK—

1907.—Xenophon: Hellenica, Book I., ed. G. M. Edwards, (Pitt Press).
Euripides: Heracleidae, ed. E. A. Beck & C. E. S. Headlam, (Pitt Press).

1908.—Xenophon: Cyropaedeia, Book I., ed. E. S. Shuckburgh, (Pitt Press).
Euripides: Alcestis, ed. A. J. Tate, (Blackie's Illustrated Greek Series).

FRENCH—

1907.—Sandeau: Sacs et Parchemins. (Siepmann's Series, Macmillan).
Abel-Musgrave: French Dramatic Scenes. (Arnold.)

1908.—Corneille: Le Cid, (Hachette).
Sarcey: Le Siège de Paris, (Heath & Co.).

GERMAN—

1907.—Elster: Zwischen den Schlachten. (Siepmann's Series, Macmillan.)
Grillparzer: Sappho. (Siepmann's Series, Macmillan.)

1908.—Goethe: Iphigenie, (Clarendon Press).
Chamisso: Peter Schlemihl, (Clarendon Press).

ITALIAN—

1907.—Tasso: La Gerusalemme Liberata. Cantos I. and II., ed. Cotterill, (Clarendon Press).
Manzoni: I Promessi Sposi. (Hachette.)

1908.—Dante: Inferno, (Selections, pp. 1-34), ed. Cotterill, (Clarendon Press).
Fra le Corde di un Contrabasso, (W. R. Jenkins, New York).

ORDINARY EXAMINATIONS FOR DEGREES, 1907 AND 1908.

DETAILS OF SUBJECTS AND LISTS OF BOOKS PRESCRIBED OR RECOMMENDED.

Where no date is named, the Details apply to both 1907 and 1908.

FIRST EXAMINATION B.A.

LATIN I.

Translation at sight from Latin into English.
Translation from English into Latin prose.
Translation from prescribed books, with questions on language and subject-matter.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907

Pass—
Livy: Book II., ed. R. S. Conway, (Pitt Press).
Virgil: Aeneid, Books VII. and VIII., ed. A. Sidgwick, (Pitt Press).

Additional for Credit.—
Cicero: pro Sulla, ed. J. S. Reid, (Pitt Press).
Horace: Epistles, ed. A. S. Wilkins, (Macmillan)

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Pass.—
Livy: Book III., ed. H. M. Stephenson, (Macmillan).
Virgil: Aeneid, Books IX. and X., ed. A. Sidgwick, (Pitt Press).

Additional for Credit.—
Cicero: Philippica Secunda, ed. A. G. Peskett, (Pitt Press).
Horace: Carmina, Books II. and III., ed. J. Gow, (Pitt Press).

GREEK I.

Translation at sight from Greek into English.
Translation from English into Greek prose.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Pass.—

Xenophon: Memorabilia, Book II., ed., G. M. Edwards, (Pitt Press).

Homer: Odyssey, Book XI., ed. J. A. Nairn, (Pitt Press).

Additional for Credit.—

Thucydides: Book I., ed. R. Shilleto, (Bell).

Sophocles: Oedipus Tyrannus, (School Edition), ed. R. C. Jebb, (Pitt Press).

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Lysias: Orations II. [7], V. [12], XI. [22], ed. E. S. Shuckburgh, (Macmillan).

Homer: Odyssey, Book IX., ed. G. M. Edwards, (Pitt Press).

Additional for Credit.—

Thucydides: Book VII., ed. C. F. Smith, (Ginn).

Sophocles: Oedipus Coloneus, ed. R. C. Jebb and E. S. Shuckburgh, (Pitt Press).

ENGLISH I.

History of the Language.

Period of Literature, 1560 to 1660, with prescribed books.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Pass.—

Emerson: History of the English Language, (Macmillan).

Saintsbury: History of Elizabethan Literature, (Macmillan).

Shakespeare: King Lear, Twelfth Night, ed. W. A. Wright, (Clarendon Press).

Bacon: Essays I., II., IV., V., XI., XVI., XVIII., XXI., XXIII., XXIV., XXVIII., XXX., ed. A. S. West, (Pitt Press).

Additional for Credit.—

W. H. Williams: Specimens of the Elizabethan Drama, (Clarendon Press).

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Pass.—

Emerson: History of the English Language, (Macmillan).

Saintsbury: History of Elizabethan Literature, (Macmillan).

Shakespeare: Hamlet, As You Like It, ed. W. A. Wright, (Clarendon Press).

Sidney: Apologie for Poetrie, ed E. S. Shuckburgh, (Pitt Press).

Additional for Credit.—

Kyd: The Spanish Tragedy, ed. J. Schick, (Dent).

Ford: Perkin Warbeck, ed. Pickburn and Brereton, (George Robertson).

FRENCH I.

Translation at sight from French into English.
Translation from English into French prose.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Pass.—

Fasnacht: Specimens of French Writers, (Macmillan), Introduction and text, pp. 1-156.
Voltaire: Siècle de Louis Quatorze, (Pitt Press), Part I.
Boileau: L'Art Poétique, (Hachette).

Additional for Credit.—

Chaytor: A Companion to French Verse, (Murray).
Brachet: Historical French Grammar, (Clarendon Press), Introduction, and Book I.
Saintsbury: Short History of French Literature, (Clarendon Press), Books I., II., III.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Pass.—

Fasnacht: Specimens of French Writers, (Macmillan), Introduction and text, pp. 1-156.
Musset: Poésies Choisies, ed. Delbos, (Clarendon Press).
La Bruyère: Les Caractères, ed. Pellissier, (Macmillan).
Saintsbury: Primer of French Literature, (Clarendon Press).

Additional for Credit.—

Gaston Paris: Extraits de la Chanson de Roland, (Hachette).
Chaytor: A Companion to French Verse, (Murray).
Brachet: Historical French Grammar, (Clarendon Press), Introduction, and Book I.

GERMAN I.

Translation at sight from German into English.
Translation from English into German prose.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Buchheim: Deutsche Lyrik, (G. T. S., Macmillan), pp. 214-338.
Goethe: Götz von Berlichingen, (Macmillan).
Freytag: Soll und Haben, (Bell).

Additional for Credit.—

Max Müller: German Classics, (Clarendon Press), Vol. II., pp. 334-504.
Behaghel: Historical German Grammar, (Macmillan), Chapters I., II., III.
Selss: Critical Outlines of German Literature, (Longmans), pp. 1-164.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Buchheim: Deutsche Lyrik, (G. T. S., Macmillan), pp. 1-117.

Atkins and Kastner: Goethe's Poems, (Blackie & Son).

Scheffel: Ekkehard, ed. Hager, (Bell & Sons).

Selss: Critical Outlines of German Literature, (Longmans).

Additional for Credit.—

Max Müller: German Classics, (Clarendon Press). Vol. II., pp. 1-333.

Behaghel: Historical German Grammar, (Macmillan), Chapters I., II., III.

GENERAL HISTORY OF ENGLAND.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Pass.—

Green: Short History of the English People, (Macmillan).

Seeley: Expansion of England, (Macmillan).

Oman: England in the Nineteenth Century, (Arnold).

Additional for Credit.—

Macaulay: Essays on subjects connected with English History, (Longmans), for 1907 only.

Macaulay: The following historical essays—Hallam's Constitutional History, Lord Nugent's Memorials of Hampden, William Pitt Earl of Chatham, Sir James Mackintosh, Warren Hastings, The Earl of Chatham, (Longmans), for 1908 only.

Candidates are recommended to use the following.—

Robertson and Bartholomew: The Student's Historical and Modern Atlas of the British Empire, (Methuen).

LOGIC I.

Pass.—

Fowler: Deductive Logic, (Clarendon Press).

Fowler: Inductive Logic, (Clarendon Press).

Welton: The Logical Bases of Education, (Macmillan).

Additional for Credit.—

Keynes: Formal Logic, (Macmillan).

MATHEMATICS I.

As prescribed under A, in scheme at end of Details of Ordinary Examinations.

PHYSICS I.

As prescribed for the Degree of B.Sc., Laboratory work being optional.

Candidates for the Degree of B.A. need not present themselves for the practical examination, but if they wish to do so they must attend at the Physical Laboratory for 5 hours per week for 26 weeks.

SECOND EXAMINATION B.A.

LATIN II.

Translation at sight from Latin into English.
Translation from English into Latin prose.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Pass.—
As for Latin I., Credit.

Additional for Credit.—
Tacitus: Annals, Book I., ed. H. Furneaux, (Clarendon Press).
Juvenal: Satires, I. III., V., VII., VIII., X., ed. J. D. Duff, (Pitt Press).

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Pass.—
As for Latin I., Credit.

Additional for Credit.—
Cicero: Letters to Atticus, Book II., ed. A. Pretor, (Pitt Press).
Martial: Select Epigrams, Books I.-VI., ed. H. M. Stephenson, (Macmillan).

GREEK II.

Translation at sight from Greek into English.
Translation from English into Greek prose.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907

Pass.—
As for Greek I., Credit.

Additional for Credit.—
Plato: Theaetetus, ed. L. Campbell, (Clarendon Press).
Aristophanes: Frogs, ed. W. C. Green, (Pitt Press).

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Pass.—
As for Greek I., Credit.

Additional for Credit.—
Demosthenes: de Corona (school edition), ed. W. W. Goodwin, (Pitt Press).
Aristophanes: Acharnians, ed. W. W. Merry, (Clarendon Press).

ENGLISH II.

Period of Literature, 1660 to 1780, with prescribed books.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Pass.—

Gosse: History of Eighteenth Century Literature, (Macmillan).
Dryden: The Hind and the Panther. By W. H. Williams, (Macmillan).
Pope: Essay on Man. By M. Pattison, (Clarendon Press).
Swift: Gulliver's Travels; Essay on Conversation; Later Poems. By H. Craik, (Selections from Swift, Vol. II., Clarendon Press).
Addison: Selections from The Spectator. By T. Arnold, (Clarendon Press), §§ I., IV., V., VIII.
Steele: Selections from. By A. Dobson, (Clarendon Press), §§ I., II.

Additional for Credit.—

Cowley: Essays. By J. R. Lumby, (Pitt Press).
Burke: Reflections on the Revolution in France By E. J. Payne, (Clarendon Press).

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1908.

Pass.—

Gosse: History of Eighteenth Century Literature, (Macmillan).
Dryden: Astraea Redux, Religio Laici, ed. W. D. Christie, (Clarendon Press).
Pope: Satires and Epistles, ed. M. Pattison, (Clarendon Press).
Swift: A Tale of a Tub; The Battle of the Books, ed. H. Craik, (Selections from Swift, Vol. I., Clarendon Press).
Addison: Selections from The Spectator, ed. T. Arnold, (Clarendon Press), §§ II., III., VI., VII.
Steele: Selections from, ed. A. Dobson, (Clarendon Press), §§ II., IV.

Additional for Credit.—

Johnson: Lives of Dryden and Pope, ed. A. Milnes, (Clarendon Press).
Burke: Speeches on America, ed. A. D. Innes, (Pitt Press).

FRENCH II.

Translation at sight from French into English.
Translation from English into French prose.

BOOKS PRESCRIBED: 1907.

Pass.—

Fasnacht: Specimens of French Writers, (Macmillan), pp. 156-344.
Erckmann-Chatrian: La Guerre, (Pitt Press).

ANCIENT HISTORY.

Roman History, from Tribunate of Tib. Gracchus to the Battle of Actium.
Greek History, from B.C. 510 to 404.

Pass.—

Gracchi, Marius, and Sulla; and The Roman Triumvirates, (Epochs of Ancient History—Longmans).
Greeks and Persians; and Athenian Empire, (Epochs of Ancient History—Longmans).

Credit.—

Mommsen: History of Rome, translated by Dickson, (Bentley), Vols. III. and IV. of 1881 ed., or III., IV., V. of 1901 ed.

FIRST EXAMINATION B.SC.

MATHEMATICS I.

As prescribed under B, in scheme at end of Details of Ordinary Examinations.

PHYSICS I.

Pass.—

MECHANICS AND HYDROSTATICS.—Special attention is to be devoted to the fundamental principles.

HEAT AND LIGHT.—Elementary.

ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM.—The fundamental phenomena and most elementary portions.

Additional for Credit.—

MECHANICS.—Moments of Inertia and Momentum, Kinetic Energy of a Rotating Rigid Body, Harmonic Motion and its various examples in Physics.

LABORATORY WORK.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Stewart and Gee: Elementary Practical Physics, (Macmillan), Vols. I. and II.
O. Lodge: Elementary Mechanics, (Chambers); or Minchin: The Student's Dynamics, (Bell).
Tait: Heat, (Macmillan).
Tait: Light, (Black).
Poyser: Magnetism and Electricity, (Longmans).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for laboratory work:—5 hours per week for 26 weeks.

CHEMISTRY I.

Elementary Chemical Theory.
The Chemistry of the non-metals.
Elementary Organic Chemistry.

LABORATORY WORK.

Preparation of gases.
The qualitative examination, by dry and wet methods, of elements, oxides, acids, and simple salts.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Newth: Inorganic Chemistry, (Longmans).
Dobbin and Walker: Chemical Theory, (Macmillan).
Remsen: Organic Chemistry, (Macmillan).
Clowes: Qualitative Analysis, (Churchill), for 1907 only.
Clowes: Practical Chemistry for 1908 only.

For reference.—

Roscoe and Schorlemmer: Treatise on Chemistry, (Macmillan), Vol. I.

HOURS PRESCRIBED for laboratory work:—5 hours per week for 26 weeks.

GEOLOGY I.

Physical Geology.
Structural Geology.
The elements of Stratigraphical Geology and Palaeontology.
Crystallography.
The elements of Mineralogy.
The elements of Petrology.

PRACTICAL WORK.

The determination of minerals by their physical properties, and by the blowpipe.
Field Excursions.

Geikie: Class Book of Geology, (Macmillan).
Rutley: Mineralogy, (Murby).
Rutley: The Study of Rocks, (Longmans).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for practical work:—2 hours per week for one term in the laboratory, together with such attendance at Field Excursions as the Lecturer may direct.

MECHANICAL DRAWING.

Practical Geometry.
Isometric Projection.
Preparation of Machine Drawings.

BOOK RECOMMENDED:

Wells: Engineering Drawing and Design, (Griffin), Vol. I.

HOURS PRESCRIBED for office work:—5 hours per week for 26 weeks.

In the case of candidates who intend to prepare for examination in Surveying I. and II., the course of instruction may be modified to suit their special requirements.

FRENCH I.

SECOND EXAMINATION B.SC.

MATHEMATICS II.

As prescribed under C, in scheme at end of Details of Ordinary Examinations.

PHYSICS II.

ACOUSTICS.

THERMODYNAMICS.—Elementary.

ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM.—Absolute measurements and the general elementary theory of dynamos and other electrical apparatus.

LABORATORY WORK.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Stone: Elementary Lessons on Sound, (Macmillan).
Preston: Theory of Heat, (Macmillan).
Gray: Absolute Measurements in Electricity and Magnetism, (School Class Books—Macmillan).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for laboratory work:—10 hours per week for 26 weeks.

CHEMISTRY II.

Advanced Inorganic Chemistry, especially of the metals.
General Chemistry.

LABORATORY WORK.

Qualitative analysis of mixtures.
Quantitative analysis.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Newth: Inorganic Chemistry, (Longmans).
Walker: Introduction to Physical Chemistry, (Macmillan).
Clowes: Qualitative Analysis, (Churchill), for 1907 only.
Clowes: Practical Chemistry, for 1908 only.
Clowes and Coleman: Quantitative Analysis, (Churchill).

Roscoe and Schorlemmer: Treatise on Chemistry, (Macmillan), Vol. II.
Fresenius: Qualitative Analysis, (Churchill).
Fresenius: Quantitative Analysis, (Churchill), Vol. I.
Sutton: Volumetric Analysis, (Churchill).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for laboratory work:—10 hours per week for 26 weeks.

GEOLOGY II.

Stratigraphical Geology and Palaeontology.
Advanced Mineralogy and Petrology.

PRACTICAL WORK.

The preparation of rock sections.
The microscopic study of rock sections.
Field Excursions.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Woods: Palaeontology, (Pitt Press).
Harker: Petrology, (Pitt Press).
Luquer: Minerals in Rock Sections, (Van Nostrand, N.Y.).
Grenville Cole: Aids in Practical Geology, (Griffin).
Geikie: Textbook of Geology, (Macmillan).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for practical work:—3 hours per week for one term in the laboratory, together with such attendance at Field Excursions as the Lecturer may direct.

SURVEYING I., for 1907.

THEORETICAL AND PRACTICAL WORK.

Graphical Methods and the Use of Tables, as in Mathematics I. [A separate paper will be set in this part of the subject, which will be part of the examination in Mathematics I. also. Candidates who have already passed in this part of the subject as part of Mathematics I. will not be required to take this paper.]

Computation:—Reduction of traverses, latitudes and departures, the method of double longitudes, computations connected with triangulation and the setting out of roads and curves, adjustment of discrepancies in surveys, computation of areas, including such as have irregular and curved boundaries.

Use of Instruments:—Principles of construction, adjustment and use of the following—theodolite, plane table, sextant, telemeter, level, compass, clinometer, barometer, thermometer, and steel band.

Levelling, grading, and measurement of earthworks.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

Gillespie and Staley: Treatise on Surveying, (Appleton & Co., New York).
South Australian Handbook for Government Surveyors, (S.A. Govt. Printer).
Clarke: Geodesy, (Clarendon Press).
Loomis: Astronomy, (Harper Bros., New York).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for practical work:—Office work, 2 hours per week for 26 weeks; Field work, 20 hours per term for 3 terms.

SURVEYING I., for 1908.

As for 1907, with the following alterations :—

THEORETICAL AND PRACTICAL WORK.

For the sentence commencing "Candidates who have already passed," there is substituted :—"Candidates are permitted, and indeed recommended, to present themselves for examination in this paper at some examination prior to the one at which they take the rest of the subject."

BOOKS RECOMMENDED :

Clarke's and Loomis' works are deleted, and the following added :—

Baker : Engineers' Surveying Instruments.

Johnson : Theory and Practice of Surveying.

HOURS PRESCRIBED for practical work :—The number of hours will be prescribed later.

APPLIED MECHANICS.

The stresses, strength, and design of engineering structures and machines.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED :

Jamieson : A Textbook on Applied Mechanics, (Griffin). Vols. I. and II.

Unwin : Elements of Machine Design, (Longmans), Vol. I.

Cotterill : Applied Mechanics, (Macmillan).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for practical work :—5 hours per week for 26 weeks.

THIRD EXAMINATION B.SC.

MATHEMATICS III.

As prescribed under D, in scheme at end of Details of Ordinary Examinations.

PHYSICS III.

PHYSICAL OPTICS AND ELECTROMAGNETIC WAVES.
CONDUCTION OF HEAT.
ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM.—Modern Theories.
LABORATORY WORK.

Pass.—
Tait: Light, (Black).
Tait: Heat, (Macmillan).
Fourier: Analytical Theory of Heat, (translated by Freeman, Pitt Press).
O. Lodge: Modern Views of Electricity, (Macmillan).

Credit.—
Preston: Theory of Light, (Macmillan).
Preston: Theory of Heat, (Macmillan).
J. J. Thomson: Elements of Electricity and Magnetism, (Pitt Press).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for laboratory work:—10 hours per week for 26 weeks.

CHEMISTRY III.

(a) TECHNICAL CHEMISTRY.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:
Thorp: Outlines of Industrial Chemistry, (Macmillan).
Phillips: Elements of Metallurgy, (Griffin).
Brown and Griffith: Manual of Assaying, (Heinemann).
Beringer: Textbook of Assaying, (Griffin).
Sutton: Volumetric Analysis, (Churchill).

For reference.—
Thorpe: Dictionary of Applied Chemistry, (Longmans).
Fresenius: Quantitative Analysis, (Churchill), Vol. II.

Or (b) ORGANIC CHEMISTRY.

BOOK RECOMMENDED:
Bernthsen: Organic Chemistry. (Kegan Paul).

For reference.—
Roscoe and Schorlemmer: Treatise on Chemistry, (Macmillan), Vol. III.
Fresenius: Quantitative Analysis, (Churchill), Vol. II.
Allen: Commercial Organic Analysis, (Churchill).

LABORATORY WORK.
The experiments and analyses relating to parts (a) and (b).

HOURS PRESCRIBED for laboratory work:—10 hours per week for 26 weeks.

GEOLOGY III.

(a) Advanced Palaeontology and Stratigraphical Geology.
Geological Surveying.
Making of Geological Plans and Sections.
Advanced Petrological and Optical Work.

Geikie : Textbook of Geology, (Macmillan).
Von Zittel : Textbook of Palaeontology, (Macmillan), Vol. I.
Dana : Textbook of Mineralogy, (Wiley & Sons).
Rosenbusch-Iddings : Microscopic Physiography of the Rock-forming Minerals, (Wiley & Sons).

Or (b) Economic Geology.
Making of Geological Plans and Sections.
Advanced Petrological and Optical Work.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED :
Beck: A Treatise on Ore Deposits, (Wiley & Sons).
Kemp: Ore Deposits of the United States and Canada. (Scientific Publishing Co., U.S.A.).
Le Neve Foster : Ore and Stone Mining, (Griffin)
Donald Clark: Australian Mining and Metallurgy, (Critchley Parker, Melbourne).
Warnford Lock: Economic Mining, (Spon).
Dana : Textbook of Mineralogy, (Wiley & Sons).
Rosenbusch-Iddings : Microscopic Physiography of the Rock-forming Minerals, (Wiley & Sons).

PRACTICAL WORK.
Laboratory Work and Field Excursions.

HOURS PRESCRIBED for practical work :—2 hours per week for two terms in the laboratory, together with such attendance at Field Excursions as the Lecturer may direct.

SURVEYING II., for 1907.

THEORETICAL AND PRACTICAL WORK.
Mine Surveying, connecting surveys under ground with those above ground.
Detail of field practice. including the keeping of field notes, topographical, trigonometrical, sub-divisional, and other surveys, setting out of areas, laying out roads, setting out curves, plotting from field notes and coordinates, barometric and other measurement of heights. Candidates may be required to make an actual survey.
Elementary Spherical Trigonometry and Spherical Astronomy, as in Mathematics III. [A separate paper will be set in this part of the subject, which will be part of the examination in Mathematics III. also. Candidates who have already passed in this part of the subject as part of Mathematics III. will not be required to take this paper.]

COMPLETE SCHEME OF EXAMINATIONS IN MATHEMATICS FOR THE DEGREES OF B.A. AND B.Sc., 1907-8.

A.

(1st B.A.)

Pass.—

GEOMETRY.—The substance of Euclid, Books I., II., III.; Book IV., 1 to 9, and 15; Book VI., 1 to 19, 23, 31, 33, and the additional propositions known as A, B, C, D; Book XI., 1 to 21; and the more important simple propositions proved since Euclid's time. Algebraic methods, notation, and signs are permitted throughout. This applies especially to Books II. and VI. A knowledge of the treatment of incommensurable quantities is not required; that is, all magnitudes of the same kind may be treated as commensurable. In the proof of theorems candidates are free to use any methods consistent with Euclid's sequence. Angles may be regarded as generated by rotation, and as of any magnitude positive or negative. The terms sine and cosine may be used, but trigonometric formulae may not be assumed. Hypothetical constructions are permitted.

ALGEBRA.—Up to and including Permutations, Combinations, and the Binomial Theorem for a positive integral exponent.

TRIGONOMETRY.—Up to and including the properties and solution of triangles.

Additional for Credit.—

More advanced treatment of the above subjects.

Pass.—

Hall and Stevens: School Geometry, (Macmillan).
Hall and Knight: Elementary Algebra, (Macmillan).

CHEMISTRY SCHOOL.

Either Inorganic or Organic Chemistry, together with Physical, Technical, and Theoretical Chemistry.

Chemical Analysis in relation to the above branches of Chemistry.

Candidates must be certified to have worked at the Chemical Laboratory for a period of 15 hours per week for 26 weeks in one year, or for a time otherwise distributed which shall, in the opinion of the Faculty of Science, be equivalent thereto. This laboratory work shall be of the nature of research work, that is to say it shall not be merely a performance of work described in a text-book; and the Faculty shall decide, in respect of any work done by the candidate, whether it comes within this definition. Laboratory work done by a candidate during a course for a Degree, if it come within the above definition, shall be taken account of by the Faculty.

BOOKS RECOMMENDED:

The Books mentioned in the Details of the Ordinary Examinations for the Degree of B.Sc. in the subjects of Chemistry I., II., and III., together with the following:—

Traube: Physico-Chemical Methods, (Macmillan).
Schellen: Spectrum Analysis, (Longmans).
Crookes: Select Methods in Chemical Analysis, (Longmans).
Mitchell: Manual of Assaying, (Longmans).
Sexton: Elementary Metallurgy, (Griffin).

MINING ENGINEERING SCHOOL.

The Occurrence, Extraction, and Treatment of Ores.

Candidates must have attended the practical classes of the course for the Degree of B.M.E., in all subjects in which they are held, for the times prescribed in the Details of the Ordinary Examinations for that Degree, or have done such other practical work as the Faculty of Science may approve as equivalent.

Each candidate for examination must submit to the Examiner not later than the day preceding the commencement of the examination, the complete design of a Mining or a Metallurgical Plant, executed by himself. The importance of the subject chosen, as well as the merit of the execution, will be taken account of.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TASMANIA.

REPORT FOR 1906.

To His Excellency SIR GERALD STRICKLAND, Count Della Catena, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor in and over the State of Tasmania and its Dependencies, in the Commonwealth of Australia.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY:

THE Council of the University of Tasmania, in conformity with the provisions of "The Tasmanian University Act," has the honour to report, for the information of Your Excellency in Council, the proceedings of the University for the year 1906.

Sections I., III., and IV. of the following report relate to the period between Commemoration 1906 and Commemoration 1907, and the remainder of the report to the calendar year 1906.

I.—PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS.

Junior Public Examination.

The sixteenth Examination under the Regulations of the Junior Public Examination was held at Hobart and Launceston, and also at Devonport, Queenstown, and Zeehan, as Local Centres under Local Committees. The Examination lasted from the 3rd to the 7th December.

One hundred and seventy-eight candidates presented themselves for examination, of whom 152 entered for subjects the passing in which would constitute passing the examination. Of the latter number, 68, that is to say 45 per cent., passed the Examination, 11 being placed in the First Class, 21 in the Second, and 36 in the Third. One also, who had previously passed the examination, passed again in a selected subject.

In addition to the above, 102 passed in separate subjects.

University Exhibitions.

On the result of the foregoing Examination, the Council awarded to the five following candidates University Exhibitions of the value of £20 per annum each, tenable for three years from the 1st January, 1907, at the institutions mentioned after their names :—

McKean, Alex. Joseph, St. Mary's College, Hobart.
Hinman, William Frederick, Church Grammar School, Launceston.
Jones, Hector Gordon, Carmen Town School, Penguin.
Eiszele, Lawrence Victor, Queen's College, Hobart.
McAllen, Winifred Cecily Mary, St. Mary's College, Hobart.

Senior Public Examination.

The sixteenth Examination under the Regulations of the Senior Public Examination began at Hobart and Launceston on the 29th November and ended on the 8th December. Candidates were also examined at the Local Centres of Queenstown and Zeehan.

One hundred candidates presented themselves for examination, of whom 92 entered for subjects the passing in which would constitute passing the Examination. Of the latter number, 40, that is to say 43 per cent., passed the Examination. Of these, 11 were placed in the First Class, 8 in the Second, and 21 in the Third. Five also, who had previously passed the Examination, passed again in selected subjects.

In addition to the above, 51 passed in separate subjects.

Sir Richard Dry Prize.

This Prize, for Modern Languages, including English, was won by Muriel Louisa Williams.

University Scholarships.

University Scholarships, each of the value of £25 per annum, tenable for three years from 1st January, 1907, were awarded to Hedley Duncan Wright on Groups I. and II., and to Alexander Dudley Mackay on Groups III. and IV. Also, second Scholarships of £15 per annum, to Eric Jeffrey and Gilbert Thurgate Lovett.

The two first mentioned were also each granted a boarding allowance of £25 per annum.

Special Examinations.

A Special Examination of the Senior Public standard was held in March, 1907, to enable candidates to complete their qualifications for Matriculation and for other purposes. Fourteen candidates entered, of whom nine were successful.

A Special Examination was also held in April, 1907, for one candidate, who passed in the subject in which he was examined.

Examination for Diplomas of affiliated School of Mines and Metallurgy, Zeehan.

In accordance with the Statute of Affiliation an Examination for the Diplomas of the School, in Metal Mining and as Metallurgical Chemist, was held in December, 1906, under the supervision of the University, and by Examiners appointed by the University Council.

II.—Matriculation Roll.

The number of names on the Roll of Matriculated Students at the end of 1906 stood at 278. This includes the names of four since deceased, and 88 who have proceeded to Degrees in the University. The number of entries during the year was 18.

III.—Examinations for Degrees.

Ordinary and Supplementary Examinations.

The Ordinary Examinations for Degrees in Arts, Science, and Laws commenced on the 15th November, 1906; and Supplementary Examinations were held commencing on the 27th February, 1907. In addition to the Professors and Lecturers of the University, the following were appointed Examiners:—Professors Jethro Brown, LL.D., Litt.D.; H. Laurie, LL.D.; E. H. Rennie, M.A., D.Sc.; Messrs. A. E. Solomon, M.A., LL.M.; R. C. Teece, M.A., LL.B.; F. Lodge, B.A.; H. Nicholls, LL.B.; G. G. Nicholson, B.A., B.C.L.; Mr. Justice Clark; Messrs. J. T. Lupson; W. H. Twelvetrees, F.G.S.

For the Ordinary Examinations 44 candidates entered, of whom 5 failed to present themselves. The 39 candidates were actually examined in 100 subjects, the average per candidate being 2·6. These 100 subject-examinations resulted in 42 credits, 37 passes, and 21 failures. Of the 39 candidates, 2 were Graduates, 36 Matriculated Students, and 1 non-matriculated.

Digitized by Google

At the Supplementary Examinations 3 candidates were examined in 3 subjects, all of them passing.

At the Ordinary and Supplementary Examinations jointly the results, in respect of completed examinations, and completed qualifications for Degrees, were as follows:—

	First Exam.	Second Exam.	Third Exam.	Qualified for Degree.
B.A.	2	4	3	1
B.Sc.	2	2	2	2
LL.B.	2	3	2	2

James Backhouse Walker Prize.

This prize was, for the year 1906, awarded to Gilbert Macpherson Johnstone, who, having in the said year completed the Third Examination for the Degree of LL.B., and being qualified to take that Degree, had, in the opinion of the Faculty of Law, shown the greatest proficiency throughout his course.

Honours Examinations.

At an Honours Examination, held in June, 1906, one candidate, Donald Burns Blackwood, B.A., obtained a Second Class in the Classical School.

The Examiners were Professors W. H. Williams, M.A., and T. G. Tucker, Litt.D.

IV.—Degrees conferred.

Between the Commemoration of 1906 and that of 1907 the following two candidates were admitted to Degrees at meetings of Council, the former in absentiâ, the latter ad eundem gradum:—

Bachelor of Science:

William Dickinson Wilson ..... 19 April, 1906.

Master of Arts:

Frederick Riley (Oxford) ..... 18 April, 1907.

On Commemoration Day, 26th April, 1907, the Annual Meeting of the University was held in the Town Hall. An address was given by Your Excellency as Visitor, and in the absence of the Chancellor the Vice-Chancellor conferred the Degrees severally specified on the following candidates:—

Bachelor of Arts:

Mary Tasker Sampson.

Bachelor of Science:

Loftus Hills.

Bachelor of Laws:

Gilbert Macpherson Johnstone.
Leonard Charles Pitfield.

Bachelor of Mining Engineering:

Thomas Duncanson McEwan Kay, B.A., B.Sc. (in absentiâ).

This brought the number of individual students of this University who have been admitted to Degrees up to 91.

At Commemoration there were also seven admissions ad eundem gradum, viz.: —

Master of Arts:

Philip Lewis Griffiths (Melbourne).
John Andrew Johnson (New Zealand).
Frank Lade (Melbourne).
Hugh Jerrard Lovibond (Oxford).
Walter John Wellesley-Smith (Oxford).

Bachelor of Arts:

Raymond Orlando Maurice Miller (Adelaide).
Evelyn George Muschamp (Oxford).

V.—Courses of Study.

Chemical Laboratory.

The University Classes in Chemistry, which in previous years had been held at the Technical School, were transferred, at the commencement of the First Term, to the newly-built Laboratory at the University.

Lectures.

The number of Lectures delivered at the University throughout the Academic year averaged 89 in each week. The total number of Students attending under the University Professors and Lecturers was, in the last term, 95.

VI.—Staff.

At the beginning of the year the University staff consisted of—Professor of Classics and English Literature, W. H. Williams, M.A.; of Mathematics and Physics, Alexander McAulay, M.A.; of Law and Modern History, D. G. McDougall, M.A., B.C.L., LL.M.; Lecturer in Modern Languages, H. B. Ritz, M.A.; in Chemistry and Geology, P. J. MacLeod, B.A.; in Mechanical Engineering, &c., J. H. Mackay, M.C.E.; Honorary Assistant Lecturer in Geology, F. J. Ernst, B.Sc., F.G.S.

From the beginning of the First Term the following additional Lecturers were appointed :—R. L. Dunbabin, M.A., in Classics, Modern History, and Mental and Moral Science, and H C. Kingsmill, M.A., in Surveying.

Mr. Ernst was granted twelve months' leave in February.

VII.—The Council.

In consequence of the passing of a new "Statute of the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor," the Reverend George Clarke was re-elected Chancellor at the first ordinary meeting of the year in the month of February, for a period of three years.

The Honourable Sir N. Elliott Lewis, K.C.M.G., M.A., B.C.L., was re-elected Vice-Chancellor for the year.

The following is the list of members of the Council at the commencement of the year :—

Members elected by the Senate:—The Rev. George Clarke (Chancellor); Dr. E. L. Crowther*, M.D.; Mr. R. M. Johnston*, I.S.O.; Mr. H. C. Kingsmill, M.A.; Mr. F. Lodge, B.A.; Mr. T. Stephens, M.A.; Mr. W. J. T. Stops*, LL.B.; Archdeacon Whitington, LL.B.; Professor Williams, M.A.

Members elected by the Parliament :—The Honourable Sir John S. Dodds (Chief Justice); Hon. Sir Adye Douglas†; Hon. T. Gant*, M.A., M.L.C.; Rev. T. Kelsh; Hon. Sir N. Elliott Lewis, M.A., B.C.L.; Hon. A. Morrisby*, M.L.C.; Hon. H. Nicholls*, LL.B., M.H.A.; and Mr. R. J. Sadler, M.H.A.

Member ex officio :—The Minister of Education, the Hon. J. W. Evans, §M.H.A.

In the month of April the Council lost a very old member by the deeply-regretted death of the Hon. Sir Adye Douglas, who had joined it as Minister of Education in 1892, and had been an elected member from 1895 to the time of his death. He was succeeded by Hon. G. C. Gilmore*, B.A., M.H.A., who was elected in July by the members of the House of Assembly.

In July, also, the Hon. J. W. Evans having made over the portfolio of Minister of Education to the Attorney-General, the Hon. W. B. Propsting, M.L.C., the latter became, ex officio, a member of the Council.

The seven members retiring at the end of the year were all re-elected, four by Members of Parliament in October, and three by the Senate in November.

Meetings of Council.

There were held during the year 14 meetings of Council. The attendance of the members was as follows:—The Vice-Chancellor (Hon. Sir Elliott Lewis), 12 meetings; Dr. E. L. Crowther, 9; Hon. Sir John Dodds, 2; Hon. W. B. Propsting, 1; Hon. Tetley Gant, 8; Hon. G. C. Gilmore, 7; Mr. R. M. Johnston, 4; Rev. T. Kelsh, 6; Mr. H. C. Kingsmill, 12; Mr. F. Lodge, 5; Hon. A. Morrisby, 13; Hon. H. Nicholls, 3; Mr. R. J. Sadler, 2; Mr. T. Stephens, 13; Mr. W. J. T. Stops, 13; Archdeacon Whitington, 5; Professor Williams, 12.

VIII.—The Senate.

The Senate held two meetings during the year.

Mr. G. W. Waterhouse, B.A., and the Very Reverend J. B. Kite, M.A., were re-elected to the offices of Warden and Vice-Warden respectively, for a further period of two years.

IX.—Statutes and Regulations.

The undermentioned amendments of Regulations, having been made by the Council and approved by the Senate, were allowed and countersigned by Your Excellency on the dates below specified:—

On 23rd March:—

Regulations of the Senior Public Examination, of Matriculation, of the Ordinary and Supplementary Examinations, and of the Degrees of B.A., of B.Sc., and of LL.B.

On 28th September:—

Regulations of the Junior Public, of the Senior Public, and of the Ordinary and Supplementary Examinations.

* Re-elected during year for further period.

X.—Addresses to Other Universities.

During the year the Fiftieth Anniversary of the University of Melbourne and the Quatercentenary of the University of Aberdeen were celebrated. The University was represented, and a congratulatory address presented on each occasion.

At Melbourne special ad eundem Degrees (M.A.) were conferred on the Vice-Chancellor, the Hon. N. E. Lewis, M.A., B.C.L., and on the Senior Professor, W. H. Williams, M.A., Professor of Classics and English Literature.

XI.—Rhodes Scholarships.

During the year there was held the third election of a Scholar for Tasmania under the terms of the will of the late Rt. Hon. Cecil J. Rhodes. The candidate elected was Mr. Thomas Dunbabin, B.A., who joined Corpus Christi College, entering upon residence at Oxford in the Michaelmas Term.

XII.—Accounts.

The audited Account of Income and Expenditure, required by the provisions of "The Tasmanian University Act," is hereto appended.

N. E. LEWIS, Vice-Chancellor.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE UNIVERSITY.

I bequeath the sum of £ , free of probate and legacy duty, to the University of Tasmania. And I direct that the same legacy shall be paid to the Vice-Chancellor for the time being of the said University, whose receipt shall be an effectual discharge for the same, and that the same shall be applied* [in the discretion of the Council of the said University to the general purposes thereof, or to such special purposes as the said Council shall from time to time determine.]

FORM OF BEQUEST OF RESIDUE OR SHARE OF RESIDUE.

I give and bequeath to the University of Tasmania all [or if so intended one equal share of] the residue of my personal estate, and I direct that the same shall be paid to the Vice-Chancellor for the time being of the said University, whose receipt shall be an effectual discharge for the same, and that the same shall be applied* [in the discretion of the Council of the said University to the general purposes thereof, or to such special purposes as the said Council shall from time to time determine.]

* NOTE.—If any special directions or conditions are to be attached to the legacy the part in brackets to be omitted and the special matter inserted.

THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS.

By his Will, the late Right Hon. Cecil John Rhodes, after stating his opinion that education at a University in the United Kingdom having a residential system was of great importance to young colonists for giving breadth to their views, for their instruction in life and manners, and for instilling into their minds the advantage to the Colonies, as well as to the United Kingdom, of the retention of the unity of the Empire, directed his Trustees to establish for male students certain Scholarships of the yearly value of £300, and tenable at any College in the University of Oxford for three consecutive academic years, and to appropriate three of these Scholarships to the State of Tasmania. The Will further directed that a Scholar should, if possible, go into residence at Oxford within six months of his election; and that the Trustees of the Will might authorise Regulations for the election of Scholars to be made by the Minister of a Colony, in respect of the Scholarships tenable by students from such Colony, and that such Regulations so made should, when approved by the Trustees of the Will, be equivalent in all respects to Regulations made by the Trustees.

Mr. Rhodes died on the 26th March, 1902. In 1904 Regulations for the Election of Scholars in Tasmania were approved by the Trustees, and the first Scholar was selected in that year and entered into residence at Oxford in October. The Regulations were modified in 1905. An abstract of them is appended.

EXTRACTS FROM
REGULATIONS
APPROVED BY THE TRUSTEES, FOR THE ELECTION OF SCHOLARS IN TASMANIA.

COMMITTEE OF SELECTION.

The Committee of Selection will be constituted as follows:—

His Excellency the Governor (in his private capacity).
The Chief Justice of Tasmania.
One Professor of the University of Tasmania to be elected by the University Council.
Two Members to be elected by the Members of the University Senate.

Digitized by Google

Two Members to be elected by the Head Masters of the Secondary Schools in Tasmania.

("Secondary School" to be defined as a school under a head master, having not less than 25 pupils, and from which at least one pupil has successfully passed the Senior Public Examination and qualified for Matriculation during the two years prior to the date when the roll of head masters entitled to vote is prepared.)

Election to be by ballot under rules to be framed by the University Council, and such rules to provide for voting by post for the last two classes.

Eligibility of Candidates.

1. Candidates must be British Subjects, or sons of British Subjects, unmarried, and not less than 19, or more than 25, years of age on the 1st October in the year in which they are elected.

2. They must have passed the First and Second annual examinations for any Bachelor's Degree in the University of Tasmania. If not exempt* from the Oxford Responsions Examination under the Colonial Universities' Statute, they must have passed an equivalent to that examination.

3. They must have been resident in Tasmania for five years prior to being awarded scholarships.

Note.—A Scholar's absence from Tasmania in any other State of the Commonwealth or in New Zealand for educational purposes during any part of the first three of the said five years shall not prejudice his right to a scholarship on ground of non-residence. Attendance at school, college, or University in Tasmania during school years or University terms shall be deemed residence.

In any doubtful cases of eligibility the decision of the Committee of Selection shall be final.

Method of Selection.

In accordance with the wish of Mr. Rhodes, the Trustees desire that, "in selection of a student to a scholarship regard shall be had to—(1) his literary and scholastic attainments; (2) his fondness for and success in manly outdoor sports, such as cricket, football, and the like; (3) his qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy for and protection of the weak, kindliness, unselfishness, and fellowship; and (4) his exhibition during school-days of moral force of character, and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in his schoolmates." Mr. Rhodes suggested that (2) and (3) should be decided in any school or college by the votes of fellow-students, and (4) by the Head of the school or college.

Where circumstances render it impracticable to carry out the letter of these suggestions, the Trustees hope that every effort will be made to give effect to their spirit, but desire it to be understood that the final decision must rest with the Committee of Selection.

* In answer to inquiry, the Trustees have decided that a candidate who is exempt will not be excluded from competition on account of inadequate knowledge of Greek.

To aid the Committee in making a choice, each candidate is required to furnish to the Chairman of the Committee of Selection :—

(a) A certificate showing that he is within the eligible limits of age.

(b) A certificate that the candidate has passed the Responsions Examination of the University of Oxford, or some accepted equivalent for that examination, or that he is exempt from Responsions under the Colonial Universities' Statute.

(c) A certificate from his school or college that he has been selected as the candidate for that school or college who best fulfils the ideas of Mr. Rhodes' bequest.

(d) A statement from his school or college of the grounds upon which he was chosen, including his educational qualifications, his record in athletics, and such testimonials from his masters at school and his professors at college in reference to the qualities indicated by Mr. Rhodes, as seem best adapted to guide the judgment of the Selecting Committee.

Should it seem advisable, the Committee of Selection is free to apply to the candidates, or to any selected number of them, such further intellectual or other tests as they may consider necessary. No candidate shall be finally elected without a personal interview.

The fourth Committee of Selection (1907) consisted of:—

His Excellency Sir Gerald Strickland, K.C.M.G., Governor, Hon. Sir John Dodds, K.C.M.G., Chief Justice,	ex officio.
Professor W. H. Williams,	elected by University Council.
Hon. Tetley Gant, Hon. Sir Elliott Lewis, K.C.M.G.,	elected by the Senate.
Mr. S. Clemes, Mr. J. E. Smith, B.Sc.	elected by Head Masters.

ROLL OF SCHOLARS

AND THEIR COLLEGES.

1904. Leonard Neil Morrison, B.A. (St. John's.)
1905. John Orr. (Balliol.)
1906. Thomas Dunbabin, B.A. (Corpus.)
1907. Arthur Henry Clerke, B.A.

FRIENDS' HIGH SCHOOL,

HOBART.

For Boys and Girls.

Principal:

GODFREY J. WILLIAMS,
M.A. Oxon., B.A. Lond.

With Four Assistant Masters and Five Lady Teachers.

Visiting Teachers for Music, Calisthenics, and Carpentry.

This School was founded in 1887 by the Society of Friends in order to provide a guarded Christian Education, with a course of instruction suitable either for Commercial or Professional life.

The subjects taught are those usual in the Curriculum of a High-class School. Latin forms part of the ordinary school work; and all Scholars have the opportunity to learn German. Greek and French are taught whenever desired.

Special facilities for Science teaching; a new and fully equipped laboratory.

The School stands in its own grounds overlooking the City.

The boys and girls have separate entrances and play grounds as well as separate gymnasia.

There are nine school rooms, all well lighted and thoroughly ventilated.

The accommodation for boarders is exceptionally good, and boys and girls have their separate sitting rooms with teachers' rooms adjoining.

A Scholarship of the value of £16 is awarded annually on the results of the Junior Public Examination.

For prospectus, terms, &c., apply to the Principal of the School, or to the Chairman of its Committee of Management,
